Scenes like the one above will be re-lived at Valentine, Nebr., June 24-27, during the Valentine-Cherry County Diamond Jubilee celebration. Photo shows a wagon caravan moving into Cherry County during the 1800's, and the scene aptly depicts many of those indomitable pioneers who opened up our Midwest and made it the great heart of America. Feature of the Jubilee program will be the presentation every day of a spectacular 90-minute historical pageant with a cast of hundreds and amply packed with comedy-drama-education interest. Visitors will long remember the elaborate town-wide decorations and enjoy the daily fireworks display, Saturday parade, big street carnival and gala dances each night.
