Description of the Property GROCERY DEPT.

GENERAL

This country store last year did a gross volume of $40,000. The store serves a large number of loyal farming customers who depend upon the store for groceries, staple hardware items, cosmetics, notions, men's overalls, jackets, shoes, rubber footwear, and as a market for cream. eggs and poultry.

The store does an unusually large volume of meat, ice cream and soft drink business.

This is a profitable operation for a man and wife. Store rents for $15 per month; four-room semi-modern dwelling rents for $30 per month. Inventory on merchandie approximately $5,500

But arrangements can be made by responsible party for carrying back part of the purchase price. For inspection of premises, contact RALPH HAMMON, Gross, the owner, or COL. ED THORIN, O'Neill, the auctioneer, before the
