450 - 600 Cattle Expected

The O'Neill Livestock Market is expecting between 450-600 head of cattle for their regular weekly sale today (Thursday). Included in the offering will be a number of load and part-load lots. There will be part-load lots of good heifer calves with a few yearling steers and heifers. The balance of the consignments will be butcher cattle, stockers and feeders.

Whitaker and Whitaker of Chambers will sell two registered Hereford bulls, and there will be consignments of milk cows.

Buyers will have an excellent selection of cattle, particularly for this time of year. Many ranchers are cutting down due to lack of rain and shortage of pasture. Plan to attend the sale today.
