Coon Hunters in Reunion; Spin Yarns

ROCK FALLS—There was a coon hunters' reunion on Monday when Lee Osborn of Parker, Kans., with his wife and sons, and Lowell Johnson and family of O'Neill met at the ranch. The time not being appropriate for a good hunt, was spent reminiscing over some of the most interesting and exciting trips of the past.

Russ Johnson, who had gone on some of the hunts about 12 years ago, was also present with his family.

Following lunch and coffee, the friends of the trail separated at a late hour.

Miss Sandra Gilman Bride in Church Rite

AMELIA—The Amelia Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Sunday, May 29, when Miss Sandra Gilman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilman, became the bride of Stanley D. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson of Atkinson.

The double-ring rite took place before the chancel decorated with baskets of pink and white peonies, with Rev. Merle Hodgkin officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported French lace enhanced by three tiers of nylon tulle ruffles under a scalloped overskirt. The fitted bodice of the dress rose into a high Queen Anne collar and the sleeves were long and pointed at the wrist. The fingertip veil was crowned with a tiny pleated bonnet of lace and tulle and star-lighted with sequins and pearls. She carried a white Bible edged with tulle and topped with sweetheart roses cascading down satin streamers.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Irvan Roth of Ponca. She wore a blue crystallette dress with matching head-piece and carried a corsage bouquet of pink carnations.

Vernon Thompson, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Ralph Adair and Bill Sammons ushered.

The flowergirl was Cynthia Dierking. She wore a peach pink gown and carried a basket of pink and white daisies.

Mrs. Blaine Garwood accompanied Miss Karen Garwood, soloist. Miss Garwood sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a green and lilac nylon print dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy sheen dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The four-tier wedding cake, decorated by Mrs. Ralph Ries of Amelia, was served by Mrs. Elmer Oetter. Mrs. Lee Sammons and Mrs. Harlan Dierking poured. Miss Connie Gilman, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

After the ceremony, the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore a dress of white sheer with red accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

The bride is a graduate of Atkinson high school and for the past three years has taught in rural schools. The bridegroom is a Chambers high school graduate and is engaged in ranching in the Amelia community.
