Mr. and Mrs. Harley . . . wedded 40 years. — The Frontier Photo.

Kasper Harley Born in 'Soddy'

STUART—Miss Lena Brown, who was born in Saline county and came to Holt as an infant, and Kasper Harley, who was born in a sodhouse 12 miles south and two miles east of Atkinson, were married on June 15, 1915, in St. Paul's Lutheran church at Chambers.

On Sunday, June 12, 1955, Mr. and Mrs. Harley observed their 40th wedding anniversary, greeting friends and relatives in their home here. One of their sons, Rev. Vernon Harley of Corpus Christi, Tex., was unable to attend. But three days following the open-house, the Harleys set out for Texas to visit with Reverend Harley, his wife and their five children.

Mrs. Harley's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles

Brown, who were early settlers on a place five miles north of Chambers. The family came to Holt county when Lena was 12-months-old.

Mr. Harley's parents, the late John and Dorothea Walter Harley, were Canadian-born of German descent and they established housekeeping in the "soddy" on their homestead on Holt creek. Miss Brown and Mr. Harley met at a neighborhood gathering on the Brown homestead. Rev. A. H. Grosse, Mr. Harley's brother-in-law, officiated at the nuptial rites.

The newlyweds spent five years on the Harley homestead—1915 to 1920. Then they moved onto a place six miles southwest of Atkinson, where they made their home until 1948, when they moved into Stuart to retire. Mr. Harley had purchased the place in 1918. One son, Arthur, resides there now.

The Harleys are members of Immanuel Lutheran church of Atkinson and regularly attend the church activities.

"We just get the car nicely warmed up driving to Atkinson," Mr. Harley explains. In Stuart, they are about 17 miles driving distance from the ranch, which they visit frequently. They have another place near Springview, about 45 miles away.

Last summer Mr. Harley, 66, painted the improvements himself, driving the roundtrip each day.

Mr. Harley recently retired after having served 34 years as secretary-treasurer of their church. Mrs. Harley at present is treasurer of the Women's Missionary league.

The Harleys have five children: Mrs. Blaine (Viola) Garwood of Amelia; Reverend Harley of Corpus Christi, Tex.; Arthur of Atkinson; Elvin of Stuart, and Mrs. Victor (Hilda) Snyder of Atkinson.

One of the high points in the Harleys' life was when their son, Vernon, was ordained a Lutheran minister (Missouri synod). Later, he spent several years in mission fields of South America. Upon returning to the United States, he was assigned a pastorate in North Dakota and later was called to a mission field in the backwoods area of Indiana, known as "Devil's back" country. Descendants of the famous Dalton and Shelton clans still are in the parish.

Reverend Harley subsequently was called by the Lutheran mission board to Corpus Christi because of his ability to deal with Spanish speaking people.

The couple regretted their ministering son was unable to attend the openhouse, but he could not get away from his missionary duties among the Mexican population of his city.

The Harleys are fond of mid-June anniversaries. Besides the 40th wedding date, Mrs. Harley observed her 67th birthday anniversary Wednesday, June 15. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harley will observe their wedding anniversary today (June 16), and Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Garwood will be observing their wedding anniversary on Monday June 20.

Eighty-two friends and relatives signed the guest book. A tape-recorded interview conducted by Cal Stewart was broadcast on the Monday, June 13, "Voice of The Frontier" program (WJAB, 780 k.c.)

Accumulate Funds for Camping Trip

PAGE — The Page Methodist young people held a basket supper at the church basement Tuesday evening, June 7, to help defray the expenses of those who will attend youth camp at Ponca. They realized a profit of $29. Bob Beelaert was auctioneer. Mrs. Merwyn French led the group in song. Harley Kennedy gave a humorous recitation, an original composition. Richard and Carol Harris sang a duet and there were several stunts. The program opened with prayer and closed with the MYF benediction.

Judy Simmons had the lesson and Bette French gave the devotions when the MYF met Sunday evening, May 5, at the Methodist church league room. Marion Heiss, retiring president, installed the following officers for the coming year: Brenda Beelaert, president; Judy Simmons, vice-president; Helen Finch, secretary; Bette French, treasurer; Becky Kennedy, news reporter and community service secretary.
