

2d Teenage Hop Acclaimed Success

The second teen hop, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was held Friday night at the American Legion auditorium with 175 teenagers howling for more.

A door prize of $5 was won by Marcell Witt. The jitterbug contest was won by Regina Hynes and Ray Donohoe; second place went to Sharon Murray and George Tomlinson.

Numerous spot dances were staged and the winners received free admission to the next teenage dance to be held in the near future.

A large number of parents turned out as spectators and to enjoy the entertainment the Jaycees were sponsoring.

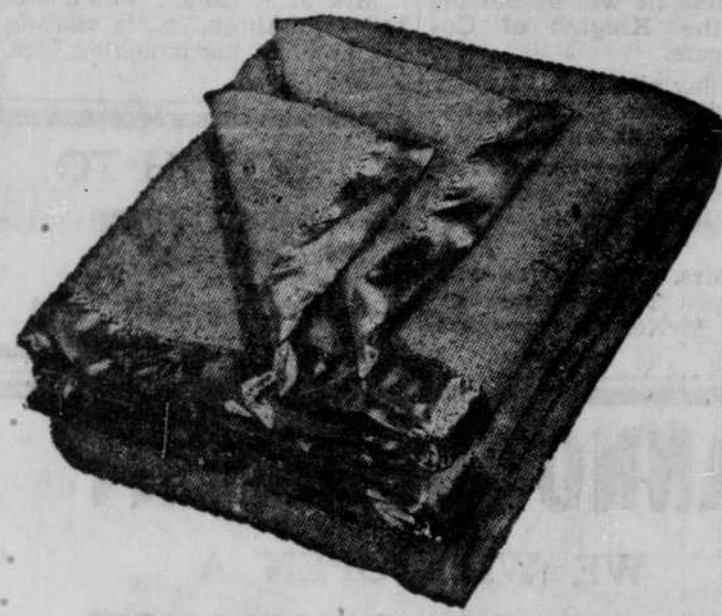

Music was furnished by local teenagers who are proving to be a great attraction themselves. Cards were signed at the door by teenagers to name the new band. The name will be announced at the next dance and the person naming the band will receive an award.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moses and Miss Martha Moses went to Norfolk Monday where they met Mrs. A. S. Evans of Imperial.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Halva spent Sunday in Verdigris visiting relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Paulik.

Sybil Ickes Weds Donald Malmberg

PAGE—The marriage of Miss Sybil Ickes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Ickes of Page, and Donald Malmberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Malmberg of Nenzel, was solemnized before the altar in the sanctuary of the First Methodist church at O'Neill at 6 p.m. Monday, June 20. Rev. Glenn Kennicott, pastor, read the marriage lines.
The bride appeared in a street-length dress of beige linen brocade with rhinestone trim. The rhinestone accessories were a gift from the bridegroom.
The bridegroom wore a conventional suit of tan worsted.
The attendants were the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ickes. The corsages were fashioned of red roses and the boutonnières were carnations.
The bridal party was served dinner in the blue room at the M&M. A floral centerpiece of red roses graced the table.
Mr. and Mrs. Malmberg left on a wedding trip through the East. Their trip will include Washington, D.C., and Philadelphia, Pa., where they will visit friends.
They will be at home after July 1 at Brownlee and Mrs. Malmberg will teach the school there this fall.
