Marian Classen, Marlin Lubber Wed

SPENCER—Miss Marian Classen of O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Classen of Spencer, became the bride of Marlin G. Lubber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lubber of O'Neill, at a 2 p.m. ceremony at the Methodist church here. Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with candelabra and tall baskets of white lilies. Rev. Clyde Wells, church pastor, officiated at the double-ring service Monday, June 20.

Mrs. P. O. Friedrich of Spencer played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Harold Haun, also of Spencer, who sang "I Love You Truly," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of white satin and chantilly lace. It featured a fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and a bouffant skirt. The skirt was fashioned with a lace overskirt over satin. The bride's fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a small white cap.

The brides attendants were her sister, Miss Marceline Classen, who served as maid-of-honor; Mrs. Thomas Soukup of Lincoln, Mrs. Joe Phifer of Spencer, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Catherine Bentz of Omaha. The attendants were gowned in floor-length pastel formals. They wore net picture hats and carried bouquets in colors to match their dresses.

The ringbearer and flowergirl were a niece and a nephew of the bride, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phifer.

The bridegroom was attired in a white coat and dark trousers and his attendants wore conventional blue. Rob Roy Prouty of Spencer served as bestman. Norman Hagberg, Donald Cizek and Robert Classen, brother of the bride, served as the bridegroom's other attendants. All are of Spencer.

The bride's mother chose a rose gown and white accessories for her daughter's wedding and the mother of the bridegroom appeared in a pink dress with white accessories. Each wore a white corsage.

More than two hundred relatives and friends witnessed the wedding service and later attended the reception for the couple held at the Community hall. The hall was decorated for the occasion and the bride's table featured a three-tier, flower-decorated wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

A wedding dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Lubber in the evening.

After a wedding trip they will make their home in O'Neill where Mrs. Lubber is an employee of the Bell Telephone company and Mr. Lubber is a truck operator.

Miss Iona Ernst Becomes Bride of Ivan L. Wayman

Miss Iona Ernst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ernst of O'Neill, and Ivan L. Wayman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wayman of O'Neill, were united in marriage at a 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony, Friday, June 17, at First Methodist church in O'Neill.

Rev. C. P. Turner officiated at the ceremony before a chancel decorated with baskets of white daisies, syringa and shades of blue delphinium, and bouquets of red and pink roses. Candles in the branch candelabra were lighted by the bride's brother, Richard Ernst.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a chapel-length gown of French lace and nylon tulle featuring a fitted bodice, portrait neckline, Peter Pan collar and long tapered sleeves, pointed at the wrist. The hooped skirt was of nylon tulle with appliqued motifs of French lace.

The fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a lace pill-box hat accented with pearls. She carried a white orchid with lilies-of-the-valley and ribbon streamers on a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss June Ernst was maid-of-honor. Mrs. Clarence Tieszen was matron-of-honor and the bridesmaid was Lorraine Ernst. All are sisters of the bride. They wore identical gowns of different shades of blue, three-strand choker necklaces, white gloves and braided headpieces of blue net and taffeta, scattered with pearls, and carried feathered white carnations on blue net hearts with white ribbon streamers knotted with lilies-of-the-valley.

Bestman was Norman Wayman, brother of the bridegroom. The groomsmen were Gordon Lorenz and Clarence Tieszen. Bernard Lorenz and Clifford Dick served as ushers. All wore white carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. Howard Manson, organist, accompanied Miss Irene Searles and Delbert Dick, soloists.

The flowergirl, Judy Searles, wore a dress like that of those of the attendants and carried a basket of rose petals.

The bride's mother wore a dress of rose mesh and white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a shadow sheer lilac dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Homer Ernst baked and decorated the four-tier cake. Mrs. Orville Kemper cut the cake and Miss Esther Dick and Miss Ramona Wayman had charge of the gifts. Miss Verna Pruss took care of the guest book. Others helping with the reception were Mrs. Joe Bahl, Mrs. James Conway, Mrs. Ed Thomas, Mrs. Bert Barnhard, Mrs. Bill Buxton, Mrs. Floyd Ritts and Mr. John Bahl.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Middlekaup, Mr. and Mrs. John Huenik of Lincoln, Miss Irene Searles and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tieszen of Omaha and Delbert Dick of Valentine.
