

Gibson-Vandersnick Nuptials at Ewing

EWING — St. Peter's Catholic church was the setting Tuesday, June 28, at 9 a.m., for the wedding of Miss Marcia Lee Gibson and Lewis Vandersnick, both of Ewing. Garden flowers in the bride's chosen colors of orchid and yellow were used in the decorations of the altar.

Rev. P. F. Burke officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Traditional musical selections were played by Arthur Spittler.

The bride is the daughter of A. C. Gibson of Ewing and the late Mrs. Gibson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vandersnick of Ewing.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, featuring a fitted bodice accented by a Peter Pan collar and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt, chapel length, was highlighted by a double ruffle of tulle at the top of a wide flounce.

A lace half bonnet with pearls held the bride's fingertip French illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, centered with a removable orchid corsage.

Miss Joan Binkard was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length gown of orchid net over satin with a lace bolero. Her bouquet was of yellow carnations. Miss Winnie Vandersnick was the bridesmaid. Her gown of yellow was identical to the maid-of-honor. Her bouquet was of orchid carnations.

The bridegroom's attendants were Joe Miller of Ewing and Keith Gibson, brother of the bride. Don Vandersnick of Ewing and Harlan Neilsen of St. Paul ushered.

Julie and Jody Fry, nieces of the bride appeared in white organza floor-length gowns as flower girls. Vincent Vandersnick was the ringbearer.

A 12 o'clock wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and immediate relatives at St. John's church. The bride's table carried out the color theme of orchid and yellow, centered with the three-tier wedding cake which was flanked with candles.

The reception was held at 2:30 p.m., at St. John's church and was attended by a large crowd of friends and relatives.

Miss Bernadine Rotherham had charge of the guest book. The Misses Marilyn Weyrich and Patricia Rotherham assisted with the gift. Miss Joelyn Eacker poured.

In charge of the dinner and refreshments were Mrs. R. H. Shain, Mrs. Rose Bauer and Mrs. Frank Bohn. Waitresses were Diane Baum, Helen Rotherham, Sharon Rotherham, Jolyne Kaczor and Patsy Pollock.

The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Carl Thiele. Punch was served before the reception by Mrs. Arthur Sanders and daughter, Mrs. Vernon Rocky.

For traveling to Yellowstone park, the bride chose a beige tailored dress with brown accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Vandersnick will live on a farm six miles south of Ewing upon returning from their wedding trip.

Mrs. Vandersnick is a graduate of the Ewing high school, class of 1953. She took one year of nurse's training at the Nebraska Methodist hospital in Omaha and then worked as a doctor's assistant in Norfolk. During her school years in Ewing, she assisted in her father's drug store.
