300 - 400 Head of Cattle

- There will be between three hundred and four hundred cattle to be sold at the O'Neill Livestock Market today (Thursday).
- Already consigned are several nice packages of yearling steer and heifer calves. These are packages of 15 to 35 head. There will also be a few mixed consignments of calves, and a lot of good fat cattle to be sold in connection with today's sale.
- The quality is better than normal, as a number of stock growers have felt the effect of the recent dry weather on their pastures.
- The hog sale will get underway promptly at 1 o'clock, with the cattle sale starting around 2:30.

THE TRADEMARK OF QUALITY FARM EQUIPMENT

Lois Ann Miller, Richard Kielholz Wed

PAGE—Miss Lois Ann Miller became the bride of Richard Kielholz in a double-ring afternoon ceremony performed before the altar of Christ Lutheran church at O'Neill Monday, July 11, at 5 o'clock. Rev. Ernest Smith, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller of Star, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kielholz of West Lafayette, Ind.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Roy Berner was soloist and sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Howard Manson accompanied her at the organ.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of imported French organdy with a sleeveless bodice and a portrait neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place by a crown with pearl trim and she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride's bouquet was pink roses interspersed with white carnations.

Mrs. George Oetter, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and wore a sleeveless dress of pale yellow over-lace. The bridesmaid, Miss Ruth Parks of Omaha, wore an identical dress of pale green. They carried bouquets of carnations tinted to match their dresses and they wore little matching self-material hats.

The bridegroom was attended by Bob Barnes of Cozad, bestman, and George Oetter. The bridegroom's suit was grey.

The bride's mother wore a dress fashioned of pink nylon and the bridegroom's mother's dress was beige lace. Accessories for both mothers were white. Corsages were white carnations with carnation boutonnieres for the men.

Little Georgine Oetter, niece of the bride, was flowergirl and laid flower petals before the bridal party. She wore a yellow organdy dress.

Miss Norma Timmerman lighted the candles for the candlelight ceremony.

Mrs. Ewalt Miller and Mrs. Palmer Skulborstad were in charge of the decorations, which were pale yellow and green. The color scheme was carried out at the church and at the Legion hall where the reception was held. Baskets of gladioli graced the altar.

Ushers were Earl Miller and George Oetter.

A four-tier wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Col-fack, was served at the reception. The Misses Beverly Linquist, Jo Ann Braddock, Sherry Stewart and Ruth Miller served at the bride's table and wore aprons to match the color scheme.

Miss Joyce Miller presided at the gift book and Miss Beulah Miller was in charge of the gift table.

In charge of the kitchen arrangements were Mesdames Robert Miller, Fred Timmerman, Robert Tomlinson, Harvey and Paul Krugman and William Kraft. Following the reception a large crowd danced to the music of Martin Frahm and his orchestra at the Legion club in O'Neill.

For her going away dress, the bride chose a navy blue traveler's model with white accessories. After a short wedding trip through the Black Hills the couple will be at home at West Lafayette, Ind., where the bridegroom will attend college.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Mabel Couch of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. John Huff of Lucas, S.D.; Mrs. Art Haul of Gregory, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller of Colome, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sears and Gary, all of Grand Island; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Miller of Walnut and Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Miller and family of Star.

Sukups Entertain—

INMAN—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Siders were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sukup of Page. The Siders' granddaughter, Mrs. Duane Sukup, and Lynda of Salina, Kans., are visiting a few weeks at the Sukup home while Duane is overseas.
