Doris Sterns Is Bride of Iowan

Miss Doris Sterns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sterns of O'Neill, and James Moss of Sioux City were united in marriage Friday at 8 p.m., in the Methodist church. Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a monastery white floor-length gown fashioned of imported French hand clipped chantilly lace over white satin and nylon tulle. The sculptured lace bodice was applied to the scalloped tulle yoke, which was edged with ropes of pearls. The wing collar was edged with the pearl ropes and the long fitted sleeves were pointed at the wrist. The bouffant skirt featured two lace tiers, V-shaped above a wide dust ruffle of tulle which tapered to the back of the dress. Her fingertip veil extended from a chantilly lace cap decorated with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Anita Anson, cousin of the bride, served as maid-of-honor. Mrs. Jeanne Fridley served as bridesmaid. Both attendants wore light blue ballerina-length dresses of crystaletta with matching headpieces. They carried bouquets of white carnations with blue ribbons.

The bridegroom and his attendants, Donald Murphy and Neil Mischio, both of Sioux City, wore dark blue business suits with white carnation boutonnières.

Don Fridley of Ainsworth and Wayne Barnes of Emmet served as ushers.

Mrs. Harold Seger played the traditional wedding march. Mrs. Donald Moss of Sioux City accompanied Miss Jeannette Moss, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The bride's mother wore a gray dress with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in a blue dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, Miss Joyce Miller had charge of the guest book, Miss Donna Moss and Mrs. Robert Gude had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Frank McKenny, Miss Joyce Miller and Mrs. Edward Price served.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Moss and Karen, Mrs. Gordon Moss, Misses Bonnie, Connie, Jeannette and Helen Moss, Mr. and Mrs. William Moss, Donald and Frank Moss, Mrs. James Moss, Mrs. George Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Murphy, all of Sioux City; Mrs. Ralph Leasing of Uteca, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Neilson of Irene, S.D.; Mrs. Lemoine Jensen of Hurley, S.D.; Olaf Nielsen of Irene, S.D.; Mrs. Earl Shriner, Mrs. Kathryn Shriner, John Brittan and Jack Lauden, all of Lincoln; Miss Paula Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Strong, Gary, Roland and Donald, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. George Barnes of Racine, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fridley of Ainsworth; Mrs. Robert Gude of Plainview and Vennie Lanek and Bud Leiligt of Wahoo.

For traveling the bride chose a dark blue linen suit with white accessories. After a short trip, the couple will reside at 1903 Hennepin street in Sioux City.

Phyllis Tielke Bride of Iowan

STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon, June 28, when Miss Phyllis Tielke of Sioux City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tielke of Stuart and Arnold J. Friend of Waterloo, Ia., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Friend of Sioux City, were united in marriage.

Rev. A. J. Paschang performed the double-ring ceremony at 2 o'clock.

The church was decorated with bouquets of yellow gladioli, shasta daisies and blue and pink asters.

The nuptial music was played by Miss Mary Coufal.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a waltz-length gown of chantilly lace tulle over a full taffeta skirt fashioned with a molded bodice with short sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. The full skirt featured a lace peplum and had scattered lace medallion appliques. Her double illusion veil was held by a seed pearl crown of orange blossoms and she carried white sweetheart roses with cascades of stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Mr. Donald Chaney, who served her sister as matron-of-honor, wore a ballerina length gown of lettuce green nylon net styled with a nylon lace bodice and peplum.

The strapless bodice was topped with a short nylon lace jacket. She wore a crescent shaped headpiece of white daisies and carried a matching high crescent bouquet of daisies.

Gregory Tielke of Atkinson, brother of the bride was bestman.

Howard Tielke of Sioux City brother of the bride, and Norman Gustafson of Sioux Falls, S.D., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bridegroom and his attendants wore grey business suits with white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother wore a rose lace gown with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy sheer with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception for 65 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Marcie Boelien had charge of the guest book and gift table.

The table was centered with a four layered pillared cake trimmed with roses and forget-me-nots, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The brides colors, green and white, were carried out with the candles and other decorations.

Mrs. Howard Tielke served the punch and the wedding cake was served by Mrs. Bill Tielke.

Miss Joan Friend poured. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Delbert Addison, Mrs. Gerald Math-
