

Absent Members Avoid Doing Chores

Club Members Use Novel Roll Call

ROCK FALLS—The Pleasant Day club met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Johnson on Wednesday, July 13, with 10 members present. It had been decided at the previous meeting that the hostess would tell what roll call would be. Therefore, as each member's name was called she was handed a slip of paper. Written on the paper was some chore to perform. As a result the windows were washed, morning's wash was hung out and some ironing was done. Unfortunately, some members were absent.

After a brief business meeting, lunch was served in the shade on the lawn.

It was decided to skip the August meeting and convene on September 14 at the home of Mrs. Lulu Curran.
