Miss Frances Lynne Reimer, daughter of Holt County Judge and Mrs. Louis W. Reimer of O'Neill, and Richard G. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson of O'Neill, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, July 17, at 2 o'clock in First Methodist church here before an altar decorated with candelabra and baskets of pink gladioli and asters. Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a waltz-length gown of nylon lace and net over satin, featuring a fitted bodice of lace and a skirt of alternated tiers of lace and net ruffles. A tiny lace hat held the nylon net veil in place. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Glenna Strong of Lincoln, maid-of-honor, and Miss Esther Kaiser, bridesmaid, appeared in identical light blue crystallette dresses featuring dropped waistlines and large bows at the back below V-necklines. They wore matching blue hats and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations arranged with white net.

Allen Walters, cousin of the bridegroom, served as bestman, and Gary Nelson, also a cousin of the bridegroom, was attendant. Ushers were DeWayne Anson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Henry F. Reimer and Louis W. Reimer, Jr., both brothers of the bride.

Misses Patricia DeBolt and Arlene Walters were candlelighters. They wore blue dresses. Miss DeBolt's dress was made princess style and Miss Walters' gown featured a dropped waistline. Both wore white hats and white carnation corsages.

The bride's mother wore a mauve pink pongee dress. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a blue sheer. Both had white corsages.

Mrs. Howard D. Manson played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Richard Smithson, soloist, who sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Sue Nelson and Sharon Anson of O'Neill, sister and niece of the bridegroom, were flowergirls. Steven Taylor of Grand Island, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for one hundred guests in the Methodist church parlors. The four-tier wedding cake was decorated with white and light blue and topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miss Elayne Reimer of Ewing and Mrs. Edward Davis poured coffee and Mrs. H. F. Reimer served the punch.

Mrs. DeWayne Anson had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Lucien Taylor and Mrs. J. F. Bangs had charge of the gifts and Mrs. Louis Reimer, Jr., the flowers.

For traveling, the bride chose a dress of cocoa brown designer fabric with pink accessories. After a short wedding trip, they will be at home in O'Neill.

Mrs. Nelson was a graduate of O'Neill high school, class of 1954, and is employed as secretary to the superintendent of the O'Neill city schools. Mr. Nelson was graduated from O'Neill high school, class of 1951, and is employed by Gambles as a salesman.
