Bernice Kirwin Dies at Kearney

Miss Bernice Kirwin, 51, housekeeper at St. Patrick's rectory here since December, 1949, died Sunday morning, July 24, in Good Samaritan hospital at Kearney. She had submitted to surgery last fall and became ill again this spring, reentering the Kearney hospital for additional surgery on June 1.

Funeral services were conducted at 9 a.m., Tuesday, July 26, at Kearney with Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church here, officiating in the requiem mass, assisted by Rev. Kenneth Carl of Leigh, former assistant pastor here, and by Rev. Thomas Hitch, present assistant pastor.

The late Miss Kirwin had been Father O'Sullivan's housekeeper for 21 years—initially at Tilden, later at Jackson and O'Neill. Burial was in the family plot at Exeter. Miss Kirwin was born and reared at Grafton.

Others from here attending the funeral were Mrs. George Head, Mrs. Lod Jonousek, Mrs. Mark Muff, Mrs. Harry Graham, Mrs. John Donohoe and Mrs. Margaret Boler.

Survivors include three sisters.

Clasey - Sinkule Nuptials at Page

PAGE—Miss Lorraine Irene Clasey and Marvin Sinkule, who were married Sunday afternoon, July 24, by Rev. J. LaVerne Jay of O'Neill at the Page Methodist church, will live at Lincoln after a wedding trip.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clasey of Page and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Sinkule of Crete.

Delbert Rice of Crete, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Warren Cronk.

The bride wore a gown of tulle and net over white satin, designed with a bodice of rose-point lace and a full skirt, which trailed into a chapel-length train. A half-halo of beaded lace held the waist-length veil. She carried red roses on a white Bible. She was given in marriage by her father.

Twin sister of the bride, Miss Elaine Iona Clasey, was maid-of-honor, and another sister, Miss Joyce Ann Clasey, was bridesmaid. Both wore blue net gowns and carried fuchsia chrysanthemums. Miss Norma Sorensen was candlelighter.

The bridegroom was attended by Leonard Sinkule, his brother, as bestman, and Richard Sinkule, his cousin, as groomsmen. Marvin Burianek and Kenneth Bors were ushers.

A reception was held at the church parlors. Assisting were Misses Connie Burns, Lavonne Meyers, Jo Ann Braddock and Marlene Kelly and Mesdames Leonard Sinkule, Alton Braddock, Lawrence Riege, Rollie Parks and Otto Matschullat.

The bride was graduated from Page high school and has been employed at the statehouse at Lincoln.

Attending Conservation Course at Deane—

Miss Melba Dobrovolsky, teacher in Holt school district 62, is attending a two-weeks' conservation short course at Doane college in Crete. The First National bank sponsored her scholarship in behalf of the Holt Soil Conservation district.

4-Hers Plan for Old Settlers' Picnic—

A meeting of the Eagle Creek 4-H club was held Sunday, July 24, at the home of Betty and Mary Jo Curran.

All the members answered roll call except one. Those members who had not prepared their roll call had to pay a forfeit by singing a song.

The club gave 50 cents to A. Neil Dawes for the spray of flowers for Guy Davis.

The club decided to take a picnic dinner to eat at the park on achievement day.

The members and their parents discussed what to do for the old settlers' picnic which is to be held Tuesday, August 2. It was decided to have a practice at the home of Micky and Elaine Miller Wednesday evening, July 27.

It was also decided to have several get-togethers for practice

WHY!! PRE-PACKAGE COLD MEAT?
MANY PEOPLE HAVE ASKED US THIS QUESTION

HERE IS OUR ANSWER:

- 1st COST: Self-service cold meat costs exactly the same price as it did in the service case.
- 2nd SERVICE: Self-service cold meat gives you faster service. It doesn't make you wait on these hot days.
- 3rd SELECTION: Self-service cold meat gives you a larger selection than before because it takes up less room.
- 4th QUALITY: Self-service cold meat affords you the same quality and the same products as you're accustomed to.

SO WE ASK:
