Talented Young Ladies to Star

Here are thumbnail sketches of two young ladies who'll wow the Holt fair-goers:

Miss Virginia Robison is a versatile, talented and colorful trick rider who hails from West Mineral, Kans. She started out in the rodeo business working with her big brother, but she is on her own now and enjoys a tight schedule of bookings around the rodeo circuit. Virginia Robison is noted for a snappy performance that will thrill the spectators.

Miss Shirley Plugge is the daughter of none other than the famous rodeo producer himself—Walt Plugge. This is her first season of professional trick riding. Determined to fulfill a life-long ambition, she purchased a colorful paint horse from the world-famous Pat Torrence herd at Pueblo, Colo. When weather permitted, she began rehearsals early in the spring. Now, Shirley is doing very well, her colorful costumes are of her own design and making, and when the snow flies she'll be back at her desk job in her hometown bank at Bartlett.

There were 20½ million trees planted in Texas in 1954, says the Texas forest service.

Montana has 5,038 miles of railroad.
