

4-H Club Notes

To Ft. Robinson—

Members of the Eagle Hustlers 4-H club were guests of Linda and Freddie Cronk on Tuesday evening, July 19. Roll call was answered with the name of a beef animal. The group discussed the cow and calf and baby beef projects and divided for lessons under their separate leaders. Frank Beelaert's and Roger Bowen's classes had a weight guessing contest. Those having breeding heifers for a project expect to go to the Ft. Robinson research station this month. Lunch was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Hugh Troshynski and roll call will be answered by naming a breed of poultry.

'Get-Well' Letter—

The Clover 4-H club held a meeting Sunday afternoon, July 17, at the home of Clarence Gilg with Don and Bob Pettinger as co-hosts. The group decided to send a "get-well" letter to Dortha Holstein, assistant state 4-H club leader, who was injured seriously in a car wreck; also to send letters to former club members who are in the service. Another meeting was held July 27.—By James Gilg, reporter.

Visit Ranches—

The Sandhill Wrangler 4-H club had a field day Friday, July 10. The group visited the James and Fospishil ranches. They ate their lunch at the Clifford ranch. A. Neil Dawes, county agent, was one of nine visitors. After lunch, members visited the Wining and Hanson ranches.—By Robert O. Clifford, reporter.

Plan Skating Party—

Sharon Mott gave a demonstration on making cocoa at the Happy Hollow 4-H meeting held at the home of R. Cleveland. Sixteen members answered roll call. Plans were discussed for a roller skating party. The next meeting will be held at the Martin Helmrick home.

Contribute to Flowers—

The Pleasant Brook 4-H club held a picnic at Neligh on Tuesday, July 12. A business meeting was held and it was decided that we would send 50 cents to the Guy Davis fund for a spray of flowers. Another meeting was held at Thiele's on July 26.

2 Meetings Carded—

The Redbird Lucky Clover 4-H club met Friday night, July 15, in the Harold Halstead home. Following the business meeting and lessons, a lunch was served by Mrs. Halstead. The next two meetings will be July 29 and August 12.

To Ft. Randall—

The Riverside 4-H club met at John Vitt's on Tuesday evening, July 12. Plans were made to have a picnic at Ft. Randall on July 24. The next meeting will be Tuesday, August 9, at Matt Beha's.—By Mary Agnes Janzing, reporter.

Workers Meet—

The Willing Workers 4-H club met Friday, July 15, at the O'Neill park. Demonstrations were given and refreshments were served.—By Larry Frisch, reporter.

Plants on Mars?—

Some scientists believe that lichen, or some similar plant must grow on Mars, says the National Geographic Society.

Lots of Merriment on Fair's Midway

The midway on the Holt county fair grounds at Chambers will be jam-packed with entertainment attractions as customary.

There will be a ferris wheel, kiddie rides of all kinds, refreshment stands, popcorn stands, and novelty stands.

The Holt fair board prides itself in keeping the "midway clean"—and that's exactly what parents can expect when they bring along their children.

A clean wholesome midway is a vital part of the fair," says Lloyd Glead of Chambers, president of the Holt County Agricultural Society, the organization that sponsors the event.

Here's Direction to Grounds—

The Holt county fair grounds are located about a mile northwest of the heart of the Chambers business section. The grounds are situated immediately west of the Chambers cemetery.

In 318 relief programs last year, the American Red Cross gave emergency help to 62,000 families and long-term aid to 7,100 families.

The window oyster of India has a shell so translucent that it is sometimes used as window glass.
