When You and I Were Young... 50 Dogs Entered in Field Trials Here J. V. Dwyer Heads School System

50 Dogs Ago There are 50 dogs entered in the Nebraska field trials to be held here. The purse of $1,000 will be distributed among the winners. The Misses Ruth and Lydia Page came up from the village of the same name. Miss Ruth will teach at Naper again this year. P. J. Biglin has been furnished a new wagon and tanks for three kinds of oil by the Standard company. Faculty for the O'Neill schools this year includes Maggie Hurley, Anna Donohoe, Mary Horisick and Nelle O'Fallon, all of O'Neill. J. V. Dwyer is superintendent and Madge Kay is principal. There was said to be a partial eclipse of the sun. Miss Margaret Sullivan entertained a party of young friends at her home north of O'Neill.

20 Years Ago Some of these days there is going to be a real accident at the corner of Fifth and Douglas. Drivers go to that corner to turn around and they are all armless. The Holt county hunters will be able to enjoy only 10 days of pheasant hunting this year. Lloyd Kaiser was found dead in his car. Cause of death was monoxide poisoning. This year the Hazel McOwen players are bringing the best talent money can buy. At the card party and two-ball foursome at the Country club, Mrs. L. A. Burgess won high score and Miss Marjorie Dickson the consolation prize. Elvin O. Alton of Atkinson and Miss Luetta Shruk of Emmet were granted a marriage license. They were married by Rev. A. J. May at the Methodist parsonage. A prairie fire north of the North Western stockyards caused a run by the fire trucks.

10 Years Ago A number of ladies from Page attended the WCTU county convention at Inman. Bennett Gilligan came up from Lincoln and spent a couple of days here with relatives and old friends. Frank Nelson came up from Ft. Calhoun where he has been for the past five weeks looking after his brother's cattle business. A large congregation attended the Memorial high mass held for Pfc. John R.
