Presbyterial Set for Stuart Church

STUART—The Women's society of the Community church met Thursday afternoon, September 8, in the church basement with 27 members and four visitors present. The visitors were Mrs. John Hasch of Newport, Mrs. C. D. Farr, Mrs. Clifford McGregor and Miss Lorraine Coats.

The devotional program was led by Mrs. Emil Olday. Mrs. Jane Cobb gave a report on the Synodical meeting she had attended at Hastings, August 31-September 1.

Plans were made for the fall Presbyterial of the western half of the Niobrara Presbytery. The affair will be held in Stuart Tuesday, September 20.

Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Dwayne Lockmon and Mrs. Neva Minnig.

Robert Montgomery Takes Bride Sunday in Neligh Rite

EWING—The Congregational church at Neligh was the scene Sunday, September 11, of the wedding of Miss Phyllis Wehenkel and Robert L. Montgomery. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wehenkel of Neligh and Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery of Ewing.

Rev. Royal Sheppard officiated. Miss Karen Lindahl was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Schrader. Both are of Neligh.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of nylon tulle over satin with a tucked bodice. The fitted jacket of chantilly lace was designed with a Peter Pan collar and three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle was trimmed with pearls and held by a pearl-trimmed tiara. She carried yellow roses on a white Bible.

Attending the bride were her sister, Mrs. Russell Striker of Wood Lake, matron-of-honor, and Miss Barbara Wehenkel of Neligh, bridesmaid. Mrs. Striker's floor-length gown of blue nylon tulle and lace over blue taffeta was topped with a nylon stole. The bridesmaid's gown was of lavender nylon net over taffeta and featured a tucked bodice and short, puffed sleeves. They carried yellow chrysanthemums and yellow carnations, respectively.

Miss Pamela Wehenkel of Orchard was flowergirl.

Harold Schwager of Clearwater was the best man and Russell Striker of Wood Lake was groomsmen. Russell Striker and Lorraine Montgomery of Ewing ushered.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the church parlors. Assisting were Mesdames Ralph Thomas, Neal Wycoff, Ted Gilson and the Misses Anna Kirk, Ruth Muckey, Marie Kester and Jolyene Kazcor of Ewing.

After a wedding trip through the Western states, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will make their home on a farm near Ewing.
