Rock Falls News

Alden Breiner, Phillip and Russell and Albert Henning took the hounds for an "airing" Sunday morning hopes they might meet up with a coyote or two. But the wary beasts were too sly as the hunters reported "no luck". Nevertheless those creatures of the wild might best watch their steps for that pack of killers is not to be fooled, once they are "running order" again after being idle all summer.

Linda Johnson was a Monday evening caller at the Lloyd Gallagher and Orville Thorsen homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Vanderbeek and children and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Seger and children were supper guests at the Donald Sterns home on Sunday.

Friends Schedule First Meeting

The Friends of St. Mary's will meet Monday evening, September 19, at St. Mary's gymnasium for the first business session of the school year. All parents are welcome to attend.
