STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of a wedding Saturday, September 17, when Miss Maureen Joan Batenhorst of Stuart, daughter of Joseph C. Batenhorst of Stuart, became the bride of Richard L. Flynn of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flynn of Naper.

Rev. A. J. Paschang performed the double-ring ceremony at 10 a.m., before the altar decorated with seasonal flowers.

The men's choir sang the wedding mass, accompanied by Sister Vera.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over Skinner satin. The long torso bodice was buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons and featured a portrait neckline of folded tulle and cut-out applique embroidery and iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The long, fitted sleeves were finished with traditional points at the wrists. The bouffant skirt extended into a chapel-length train. Her finger-tip veil of imported French illusion was held by a queen's crown of pearls, trimmed with iridescent banding.

She carried a white orchid on a white prayer book with stephanotis on streamers.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Dorothy Evert of Clarkson, and the bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Mills of Cumberland, Ia., wore waltz-length gowns of embroidered silk crystalite in teal blue and coral. The fitted bodices were styled with brief cap-type sleeves and a deep "V" scalloped neckline. Plain crystalite formed a shirred midriff extending to the dropped waistline. The voluminous scalloped skirts with embroidery on each scallop were worn over stiffened petticoats.

Kenneth Batenhorst, cousin of the bride, served as bestman and Harry Adams of Omaha, as groomsmen. Ushers were Michael Batenhorst and Frank Hamik of Stuart and John Ervin of Omaha.

The men wore business suits with carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. Robert Batenhorst chose a gray wool dress with a jacket and the bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue wool suit for the wedding. Each wore a carnation corsage.

A wedding dinner was served at noon in the Stuart auditorium to 140 guests and a reception was held from 2 until 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Marge Weichman of O'Neill was in charge of the guest book and Misses DeJores Hamik presided at the gift table.

The bride chose a brown and black wool dress with black accessories for going away. The couple is taking a trip to the East coast.

Mrs. Flynn is a graduate of Stuart high school with the class of 1952 and was graduated from Creighton Memorial St. Joseph's school of nursing of Omaha in June.

Mr. Flynn was graduated from St. Joseph's hall in Atkinson in 1951, spent two years in the army, one of which was in Germany. He is employed by the Bell Telephone company in Omaha.

The couple will make their home in Omaha.

Clasey - Plautz Rites Read in Methodist Church

PAGE—Miss Joyce Ann Clasey and William C. Plautz, both of Lincoln, were married in a double-ring ceremony Sunday, September 18, at the Methodist church here. Rev. Lisle Mewmaw, pastor, officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clasey of Page and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Plautz of Denton.

The soloist, Dale Harlan of Hickman, sang "I Love You Truly," "Oh, Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," and was accompanied by Mrs. Warren Cronk.

The altar flowers were red and white gladioli and candelabra with red and white candles flanked the altar. Miss Norma Sorensen, cousin of the bride, and Miss Marlene Plautz, sister of the bridegroom, lit the candles.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride appeared in a traditional gown of white alencon lace and tulle over slipper satin. The round yoke and Peter Pan collar of the lace bodice were framed with seed pearls. The long sleeves came to a point over the hands. The chapel-length train of tulle featured side aprons of lace. Her waist-length veil was held by a pillbox hat bordered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses on a white ribbon.

Elaire Clasey was maid-of-honor and Mrs. Lorraine Sinkule was matron-of-honor. Both are sisters of the bride. Miss Norma Borgman and Miss Shirley Plautz, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. All wore bright blue strapless creations of ballerina-length with skirts that were tiered from the waist down. Their head dresses were blue pillbox hats and their bouquets were red carnations.

Harlan Lesing of Wichita, Kans., was bestman and Donald Leach was an attendant. Charles Wilson and Marvin Sinkule acted as ushers. The bridegroom and his attendants were dressed in white dinner jackets and wore red carnation boutonnières.

The mother of the bride and the bridegroom's mother were both dressed in navy blue gowns with white accessories and each wore a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the wedding ceremony. Hostesses were Mesdames Melvin Held, Lorenze Riege, Harold Kelly and Harold Freemyer.

Mrs. Floyd Wilson of O'Neill, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake and Miss Connie Burns of Lincoln poured.

The Misses Marlene Kelly and Jo Ann Braddock presided at the gift table and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Denton was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Page high school and has had employment at the capitol building. The bridegroom is a graduate of Malcolm high.

The bride chose a suit of navy blue for going away.

The young couple departed on a week's trip through the Ozarks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Juran and son were Sunday guests at Burke, S.D.
