Rock Falls Family Enjoys Wisconsin

ROCK FALLS — Immediately after school on Friday, October 21, the Albert Widfeldt family departed for Elkhorn, Wis., where they spent the weekend with Mrs. Widfeldt's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marx Peterson, and children, also other relatives in that vicinity.

They did considerable sightseeing, enjoying every mile of the way. They said they reluctantly turned toward home, arriving on Monday evening.

On Wednesday, October 19, Linda Johnson accompanied the Lloyd Gallagher family on a pre-planned fishing trip — a date set about 24 hours late because the weatherman had a change of heart. Instead of a sunny day, it was partly cloudy with a rather cold north wind. The fishermen, however, were undaunted in their determination to have one more fling, so they decked out in clothes to fit the temperature. They proceeded to their favorite spot only to find that the fish were apparently in cahoots with the weatherman. Nevertheless, the senior fisherman came home with a 14 inch fish in his possession. The others brought back only the usual excuses.

Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Linda assisted Mrs. John Schultz do some housecleaning on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Druke and family were Sunday afternoon callers at the Lou Brown home.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Benson were dinner guests on Sunday at the Hugh Benson home in O'Neill.

Weds in Scottsbluff Church Ceremony

AMELIA — The wedding of Miss Donna Bearbower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perle Bearbower and Donald Cearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cearns, was solemnized by Rev. James H. Bartholomew at the First Christian church in Scottsbluff.

The 2 p.m., double-ring ceremony was witnessed by 150 guests before an altar decorated with baskets of pink gladioli and pink and yellow mums. The organist, Mrs. R. A. Richards, accompanied Miss Karen Weaver, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride appeared on the arm of her father, wearing a strapless waltz-length gown of tulle and lace. The bolero jacket featured short sleeves and a pointed collar. Her fingertip lace point veil was held by tulle ruffles at the crown. White carnations and pink rose sprigs formed her bouquet.

Miss Emma Belfaids was a maid-of-honor, wearing a pink gown and accessories. Bridesmaid Lorraine Lowe wore an identical gown in yellow.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kersher and Dorothy of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Lewis of Cheyenne; Mr. and Mrs. William Fryrear, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cearns, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer McConnell, all of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krysl of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William McMillian of Bridgeport; Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Weed of Alliance; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Happle of Sidney; Mrs. Anna Bauer of Sweetwater; Mrs. Mary Sietoff of Ravenna; and Mrs. E. W. Olson of Lyman.

For her wedding trip to Denver, Mrs. Cearns chose a scarlet knit suit with black velvet accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live on a farm near Scottsbluff.

Mr. Cearns is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Fryrear of the Amelia community.
