Well-Suited For Fall

NATURAL LINES in this new Dynel and wool flannel suit put it "out front" in the fall fashion parade and assure comfortable wear through the year. The minimum padded shoulders, straight-hanging jacket in 3-button model with graceful lapels adds height to the wearer and bespeaks custom tailored graciousness... a favorite point from milady's view. The addition of Dynel, the new science fiber, adds hard-wearing ruggedness to that classic favorite flannel, while its resistance to water and stains also gives the suit a crisp look that recommends it for the dressiest occasions as well as for everyday wear to the office. Whether you are a gray, brown or blue suit man, this flannel is a top choice for pepping up a tired wardrobe.
