Professor Stresses Need for Cooperation

A nine-county meeting of the Nebraska Parent-Teachers' association was held Wednesday, October 19, at the O'Neill public school auditorium. Mrs. Bleacher of Meadow Grove, district president, presided.

Cities and towns represented were Stuart, Butte, O'Neill, Neigh, Norfolk, Meadow Grove and Spencer. Thirty-nine delegates registered.

Dr. Calvin H. Reed of the University of Nebraska was the principal speaker. In his remarks he dwelt on new ideas that are needed for "effective P-TA activities." Doctor Reed is the assistant professor of elementary education at the University.

He cited the need for greater cooperation between parents and teachers and urged the delegates to relay to their respective organizations the "importance of parents knowing their children better, and knowing the schools better."

Binkerd-Brockhaus Nuptials at Norfolk

EWING—Miss Joan Dee Binkerd, daughter of Mrs. Melvin Spangler of Ewing, and William J. Brockhaus, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brockhaus of Madison, were united in marriage Wednesday, October 19, at a 9 o'clock mass in the Sacred Heart Catholic church at Norfolk. Rt. Rev. Robert P. Burns officiated.

Sister Catherine Cecilia was organist. Larry and Jerry Brockhaus of Madison were altar boys.

Melvin Spangler of Ewing gave the bride in marriage. Her gown was fashioned with a mold bodice of chantilly lace over satin and was highlighted by a rolled collar and V neckline. The long, fitted sleeves tapered to points over her hands. Alternating panes of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin formed the bouffant chapel-length skirt. A Juliet cap of lace held her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and a white rosary.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Marcia Vandernick of Ewing, matron-of-honor, and Miss Patricia Rotherham of Norfolk, bridesmaid. They wore identically fashioned gowns of lavender and yellow, respectively, with matching velvet headpieces and carried bouquets of matching chrysanthemums.

Miss Delores Spangler of Ewing and Miss Marilyn Brockhaus of Madison were flower girls. They wore white nylon dresses and flower headpieces trimmed with lavender and yellow velvet ribbon, respectively. Stanley Spangler of Ewing was ring-bearer.

Don Eisenmenger of Humphrey and James Lafleur of Madison were the bridegroom's attendants. Harold D. Johnson of Bristow and Jack Schlueter of Madison ushered.

The Altar society served breakfast for the bridal party and the reception held in the afternoon at the Knights of Columbus hall. Miss Pat Brockhaus and Miss Lois Eisenmenger were honorary waitresses. The serving table was decorated with the bride's colors of lavender and yellow and was centered by the wedding cake baked by the bridegroom's mother. Miss Rose and Mary Johnson of Bristow had charge of the gift book and Mrs. Eisenmenger of Humphrey had charge of the guest book.

After the wedding trip to the West, the couple will reside in Norfolk.

The bride attended the Norfolk Junior college and Briar Cliff college, Sioux City. The bridegroom attended Norfolk Junior college and is employed by the Norfolk office of the Nebraska state game, forestation and parks commission.

Relatives of the bride from a distance who attended the rites were Mrs. Winnifred M. Binkerd, H. Hokinson, Sandra Olson, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Smith, all of Sioux City, and Melvin Johnson, Harold Dean and Rosemary, all of Bristow.
