Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schneider . . . to reside on farm northeast of Atkinson.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Fern Waterman, Alfred Schneider Wed in Atkinson

ATKINSON — St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson Monday, October 24, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Fern Waterman, daughter of Mrs. Clara Waterman of Page, and Alfred Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schneider of Atkinson. Rev. Richard Parr performed the 9 o'clock double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Walter Waterman of Newell, Ia., appeared in a floor-length gown of white chantilly lace and tulle over slipper satin. The lace fitted bodice featured a Peter Pan collar and long, tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was fashioned of folds of tulle and lace panel inserts. Her fingertip veil was held by a pearl crown, seeded with rhinestones. She carried a white prayer book and a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley. Her jewelry was a white gold necklace and earring set, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Elsie Peter of O'Neill was bridesmaid. She wore a floor-length ice blue taffeta dress with a net overskirt trimmed with double ruffles. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

Alvin Straka served as best man. Arthur Waterman of Page and Robert Schneider of Atkinson served as ushers.

The music was by St. Joseph's choir.

The bride's mother wore an aqua dress and the mother of the Waterman of Fremont; Mrs. Walt Kruse of Brunswick; Mrs. Marion Laderier and family of Osmond and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Babl and family of Newport.

Sick & Injured

AMELIA — Alvin and Ervin Forbes have received word that their father, L. C. TV 'Mother-In-Law'

SPRING BYINGTON stars in "December Bride", the comedy series with a new point of view about mothers-in-law. Seen every Monday evening (9:30-10:00 P.M., EDT) on the CBS-TV network, Miss Byington plays the role of an attractive and romantic widow lady who makes her home with her married daughter and her son-in-law, living with them in perfect harmony and understanding.

SPECIAL CALF SALE

There will be another special calf sale next Monday, October 31. This will be the final special calf sale of the season, so list your consignments now.

The sale Monday, October 24, was a good active market. Choice cattle looked fully steady and the plain kinds were 50 cents to 75 cents higher. There were plenty of buyers on hand to take the 600 head of cattle offered.

Saturday night, October 29, there will be a special horse sale. Consign them to that sale early so we will have plenty of time to advertise them.
