"Our telephone is the cheapest service we buy"

Our phone doesn't ring as often as when the children were home. But the calls we get seem to mean even more than before—family news . . . Jim's promotion . . . our new grandson . . . an invitation to dinner.

We make a lot of calls ourselves today, maybe more than we used to. It's wonderful how much you can do by telephone—calls to grocers, cleaners, repairmen, stores. And then there is the safety our telephone gives us, too.

We're "modernizing" our telephone service, too—just had a phone installed in our bedroom. It's a blue one and Helen loves it. I figure, for convenience and for all the things we do by phone, our telephone service is the cheapest service we buy! Northwestern Bell Telephone Company.

What a big difference telephone service makes...and how little it costs!
