"OLD RELIABLE" MARKET REPORT

Monday & Tuesday Auctions

November 14 & 15

Cattle Receipts 3,336 head. Monday's last special calf auction of the season saw all classes sell on a very steady market with most prices similar to last week's auction. Choice steer calves topped at $23.35 with most of the choice kinds from $21.00 to $23.00 with some good offerings from $19.50 to $20.50; heifer mates sold from $17.50 to $18.50 with plainer kinds from $15.00 to $17.00. The anticipated run of 2,500 was realized and many of the top sales were recorded on cattle which sold after the supper hour.

With blizzard conditions threatening here and with reports of icy road conditions in the east, Tuesday's run was less than anticipated. By the same account buyer interest lagged as most of the sales recorded were fully $1.00 cwt. lower on the calf and yearling offerings. Choice yearling steers went from $16.75 to $18.00; a string of 2-yr-olds went at $16.55 cwt. No loads of yearling heifers were offered.

Butcher classes had better reception with the better kinds of beef cows from $7.00 to $9.00 with canners from $6.50 down. Bulls sold mainly from $10.00 to $11.25 cwt.
