No December Session for Community Club

INMAN—The Inman Community club met Monday evening, November 28, at the school house assembly room for a regular monthly session. Walter Fick, president, was in charge.
 A report on the rural mail box improvement project sponsored by the club was given and the judges report the following to receive the prizes: Lewis Sobotka, first; Marvin Rouse, second; Walter Fick, third; Clifford Sobotka, fourth; Earl Miller, fifth, and Donald Keyes to receive honorable mention.
 The club will not meet in December due to holiday activities. Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hutton and Mr. and Mrs. James M. McMahan were coffee hosts and a lunch was served.

Other Inman News

The Inman WSCS and their husbands met at the church on Thursday for an all-day session. The purpose was a general cleanup. The main sanctuary was put in order again after a remodeling and painting job. The group enjoyed a covered dish luncheon at noon.
 There was no school on Monday at the Inman consolidated school due to the snow clogged roads. Monday being a nice day the roads were soon cleared and school resumed on Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seastadt of Omaha were recent weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Young. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Seastadt are sisters.
 H. G. Geary is spending several days visiting in the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Geary, and family in Texas.
 Mrs. Anna Smith and Ernest Trowbridge returned home after spending the past two months visiting relatives in Colorado, Wyoming and other Western states also in Alberta, Canada.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clark of Walthill were recent guests in the Clarence Hansen, F. E. Keyes and Ralph Moore homes.
 Mrs. James Coventry accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. W. Tomlinson, Mrs. Vannie Newman of O'Neill and Mrs. William Turner of Chambers were Norfolk visitors on Wednesday, November 30.
 Mrs. Harvey Tompkins and son, Neal, and Mrs. Carl Caldwell returned to Utica on Thursday where Mrs. Caldwell will remain for a while. Mr. Tompkins and son, Roger, drove to Grand Island on Saturday to meet Mrs. Tompkins and Neal but were snowed in and forced to stay over night.
