45 Present for Sunday Eve Meeting

EWING—The Upper Room society and the Methodist Mens' club met at the parlors of the Methodist church on Sunday evening. Forty-five members and guests were present. The Devotional period was conducted by the H. R. Harris family, using a Christmas theme. The Christmas story was read by Bertha Harris. Miss Janell Hoke presided at the piano for group singing of Christmas carols. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Elliot had charge of the recreational hour, which consisted of games.

Mrs. Dewitt Hoke and Sunday-school class of girls put up and decorated a Christmas tree for the occasion, under which gifts were placed. These gifts were presented as circles were formed, one by adults, the other by children, as a musical number was played by Miss Hoke. The gifts were passed around the circle until the selection was played three times, the third time each member and guest kept the gift they had.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Piersen and Mr.

and Mrs. Dewitt Hoke made the ice cream.
