Fluckeys Observe Golden Wedding

was John Sageser and his bride, Hattie Christiansen, now both deceased.

The Fluckeys spent their honeymoon on a homestead southwest of Chambers near a lake.

Mr. Fluckey discounts any possibilities of retiring. "The boys do the work. I have a few cattle, milk one or two cows, feed the chickens and keep busy. We're happy here and wouldn't want it any other way."

They have spent most of their married life in and near Chambers with the exception of four years spent at Inman and Oakdale where Mr. Fluckey was a barber for short periods.

They have lived 36½ years at their present home.

To this couple were born six children—four boys and two girls. Their children are: Mrs. (Lerna) Wilkinson of Chambers, Leyn Fluckey of Arlington, Mrs. Ivan (Leola) Stokes of Rupert, Ida, Loy Fluckey of Chambers, Marvin Fluckey and Gordon Fluckey, both of Hastings. All the children were present with the exception of Mrs. Stokes.

They have 14 grandchildren and one great-granddaughter, Cheryl Sue Mesenbrink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mesenbrink of Fremont.

Mildred Crabb Weds Owen Davis

First Presbyterian church in O'Neill was the scene of the Tuesday afternoon, December 27, wedding of Miss Mildred Crabb of O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorrance Crabb, and Owen Davis of O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Davis of O'Neill. Rev. J. Olen Kennell performed the 3 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Emmet Crabb, appeared in a pink suit. Her accessories were wedgewood blue. She wore a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Donna Crabb, aunt of the bride, served as maid-of-honor. She wore an aqua knit dress with a white hat and a pink carnation corsage.

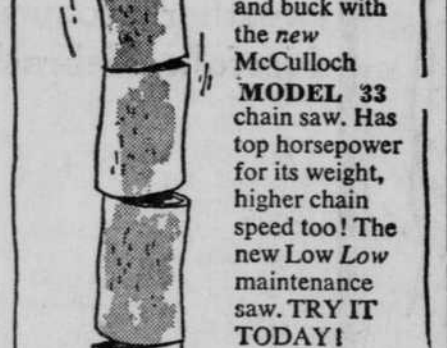

Little Miss Jean Crabb, sister of the bride, was candlelighter. Her dress was of brown taffeta.

Ed Davis, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. James Adanson of Albion ushered.

Organist was Miss Nancy Kennell. Miss Betty Harmon of Scottsbluff was vocal soloist.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the M&M. After a short wedding trip, Mr. Davis will return to Maryland where he is stationed with the army. Mrs. Davis will return to Wayne where she is attending college. She will join him in Maryland at the end of the semester.
