CARDS of THANKS

WE WISH to express our sincere thanks to those who helped in any way during the sickness and death of our beloved hus- band and father. Especially do we thank those who sent flow- ers and memorials, brought in food, those who spoke words of comfort, both at home and church. In fact, each and every one who contributed in any way to help during our sad bereave- ment. Should troubles come to you, may you be blessed with the same kind of treatment.— Mrs. George Syffe, sr., Miss Violet Syffe, Mr. and Mrs. Ad- rian Mitchell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Angus and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Syffe, jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Schoberg and family. 35p50

I WOULD like very much to shake hands with each of you for just a moment while I say "thank you," which I feel from the bottom of my heart. As I probably can not do that for some time I take this means of expressing my appreciation to all of the many, many folks who have been so helpful and so thoughtful of me and mine. May you every one be richly rewarded for all your kindness and good wishes. The world is full of sunshine and friends and good neighbors and I hope that I can be one of those good neighbors to every one of you and always that you may each get your full share of sunshine and that you know how much it really means to me when I say "thanks, thanks, thanks."
S. R. ROBERTSON 35c

WE WISH to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all of the relatives, neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness shown us at the time of the death of our beloved mother, wife and sister. A special thanks for the spiritual bouquets, flowers, cards, visits and to all those who offered a helping hand in any way. These many kind deeds have helped us to endure our sorrow. Your kindness and thoughtfulness will never be forgotten. May God bless you all.—Tom Mur- ray, Demaris and Cleta Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Adams. 35p50

I WISH to take this means to ex- press my sincere gratitude to my relatives and friends who remembered me with cards, flowers, gifts and many ex- pressions of kindness. Your con- sideration will long be remem- bered and cherished. God bless you all.
MRS. THOMAS DONLIN 50c

WE SINCERELY want to thank each and every one for all the cards, gifts and personal con- gratulations Saturday, Decem- ber 24, in helping to make our golden anniversary day a day we will never forget. Thank you so much.

F H A Allocates

Additional Million

The farmers home adminis- tration has recently allocated an additional million dollars for pro- duction and subsistence loans to Nebraska farmers, according to information received from Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Nebr.).

Senator Curtis said that Sen. Roman Hruska (R-Nebr.) and he had kept in continuous touch with the farmers home adminis- tration and they are informed that the farmers home adminis- tration can extend loans in many of the situations where the farmer is in financial difficulties.

"We are aware of the distress in Nebraska," said the senator, "and we expect to seek an addi- tional allocation of funds if it is needed where the present funds are exhausted." The individual farmer should make his inquiry through his local farmers' home administration office.

"It appears," said Curtis, "that many individual farmers and some of the local banks have not been given the information as to what government loans are avail- able."
