Jim Becker Pulls Game Out of Fire Gets 5 Points in Final 30 Seconds

BUTTE—Jim Becker bailed his St. Mary's academy teammates out of the fire Thursday night with five points in the final 30 seconds. St. Mary's won, 49-47, over Butte, their Niobrara Valley conference opponents.

Becker potted a jump shot to move the Cards to within one point of the Boyd countyans. With 12 seconds remaining, he drew a foul and made good his first try, tying the count at 47-all. The second gratis try rebounded off the side, a Butte player fumbled the ball out of bounds, Becker took a long pass and drove for the basket. He was fouled and proceeded to sink both free shots and that was the game.

St. Mary's led, 30-23, at the half. Tom Hea boned his margin on the floor in the third and left the game.

The lead changed hands with each basket during the frantic fourth. Butte was in front 47-44 when Becker got hot. He tallied 20 points during the evening. Frosh Larry Tomlinson, starting his first varsity game, collected 10 points. Butte's Bunny Quick accounted for 18.
