Mothers' March Is Planned at Ewing

EWING—The American Legion auxiliary met last Thursday evening at the Legion club and made plans to sponsor a mothers' polo march on Thursday evening, January 26. Porch lights are to be turned on at the homes.

Mrs. Alfred Napier was appointed secretary to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Fern Pruden.

It was voted that each member give 25 cents to the little red school fund.

Miss Pruden was appointed chairman of the American essay contest.

A girl from the junior class of the Ewing school was selected to attend Cornhuskers girls' state in June and the application was forwarded.

Twelve auxiliary members were joined by the Legion for a social hour and refreshments were served by Mesdames Delbert Stonebraker, Walter Woepel and Loy West, Jr.

The county Legion and auxiliary meeting which was to be held in O'Neill on Monday was discussed and several planned to attend.

Ewing Plans July Fun Day Celebration

EWING—The American Legion, Sanders post 214, met last Thursday evening for a regular session at the Legion club. A boy in high school was selected to attend Cornhuskers boys' state in June. An alternate was also chosen.

The Legion distributed 10 baskets to families in Ewing at Christmas time. Notes of thanks were read from recipients.

There was a discussion of a Legion fund day celebration some time in July. Plans were partially made for this affair.

Wayne Strader is commander of Sanders post.

On adjournment, the members joined the auxiliary for a social hour and refreshments.
