returned last Thursday from driving the Ray Disterhaupt family car to Brainard, Minn., taking Mrs. Disterhaupt and children there where the family has purchased a dairy farm. Mr. Disterhaupt took a truck load of household and farm supplies.
Mrs. Terwilliger was very enthusiastic about the country with its big barns and silos, lakes with many fishing huts on them and the many pine trees everywhere. She saw no stock cows in the fields but there were many curried dairy cows in the barns. Water was piped into the barns.
The Disterhaupt farm is one mile from town on a paved highway and a school bus picks up the children at the door and takes them to school.
