"OLD RELIABLE" MARKET REPORT

Tuesday, Mar. 13th

Cattle receipts: 1774 head. Fair weather and rising temperature brought out a large crowd for this week's large auction. All classes of cattle sold on a sharply $0.50 to $1.25 cwt. higher market. Cattle of the lighter weights continued in best demand. Bulk of the choice steer calves sold from $20.50 to $22.25 cwt. Bob Clifford topped the heifer calf market with a long string of his usually fancy kind selling at $18.65 and averaging 465 lbs., other heifer sales ranged from $16.50 to $18.25 cwt. Several loads of yearling steers were offered this week with most sales ranging from $17.00 to $18.50 with the lighter weight offerings selling on up to $20.00 cwt. Two straight carloads of 685 lb. steers went at $18.35 cwt. Yearling heifers again in short supply with several packages selling from $15.00 to $16.45 cwt., with a few on up to $17.00 cwt.

Butcher cattle sold fully $1.00 to $1.25 cwt. higher with canner and cutter kinds selling from $8.75 to $9.50, commercial cows $9.50 to $11.00 and best beef cows from $11.00 to $13.25, the latter price paid for some heiferette kinds. Breeding cows were in good demand with several strings of Hereford cows selling from $120.00 to $143.00 per head. Two bunches of Angus cows sold from $132.00 to $143.00 per head. Registered Angus bulls from $235.00 to $400.00 per head.

NEXT AUCTION: TUESDAY, MARCH 20th. Listings for next week's sale are still light so if you would like to consign your cattle for next week's auction, you may be sure of a good spot in the sale. Phone 5141 Atkinson and book your cattle where buyers and sellers have preferred to meet for 35 years.
