"OLD RELIABLE" MARKET REPORT
Tuesday, Mar. 27th
Cattle receipts 1,443 head: Although snow and rain kept many buyers at home, buyer interest was sufficient to absorb the large offering at steady prices. Choice cattle were in least demand with steer calves selling in a range of $19.00 to $22.00 and heifer calves of comparable quality sold from $16.75 to $18.00 cwt. Choice yearling steers, weighing 620 lbs., topped at $20.00 with the bulk of the 550 to 600 lb. kinds at $17.75 to $18.75. Plainer kinds from $16.00 to $17.00 cwt. Cows held all of the recent advance at $9.50 to $10.50 for canners and cutters, and on up to $12.50 for top fat cows. Butcher bulls from $12.50 to $13.75 cwt. Breeding cows from $110.00 to $135.00 per head.

Recent moisture is bound to help the market on good replacement cattle, so if YOU HAVE ANY TO SELL, CONSIDER THEM NOW FOR NEXT TUESDAY, APRIL 3d, AUCTION. We can use all the cattle we can get from here on until grass. We think you will be pleased with the price they bring.
