Visit Lincoln—
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Moses were in Lincoln Saturday and Sunday to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Moses, and family.

Pose with Cornerstone for New Church Unit

Rev. J. Olen Kennell (extreme right), pastor of First Presbyterian church, poses with members of the building committee during Sunday's groundbreaking ceremonies. Ground was broken for the Sunday-school unit—the first portion of the new church. Left-to-right: Front row—Felix Hendrick, Mrs. Dwight Harder, Mrs. D. C. Schaffer (holding cornerstone bricks), District Judge D. R. Mounts, Reverend Kennell; back row—Alfred Drayton, D. H. Clauson and Rev. Robert Ware of Norfolk, who spoke at Sunday's ground-breaking rite.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Pastor Poses with Communicants

Rev. E. G. Smith, pastor of Christ Lutheran church at O'Neill and Immanuel Lutheran church in Atkinson, poses with members of the confirmation class from the respective churches. Three young people brought into communicant membership with the Lutheran church (Missouri synod) on Sunday, March 25, at O'Neill were Vernona Ferichs, Charlotte Luebecke and Mary Lou Luebecke, all of the Page community (above), and at Atkinson were Dean Garwood (left) and Ronald Bonenberger (pictured below). Their training spanned a period of two years, Reverend Smith said.—O'Neill Photo Co.

College Group to Hold Special Service—

Wesley L. Knapp, president of Miltonvale Wesleyan college, Miltonvale, Kans., will be speaking at the O'Neill Wesleyan Methodist church tonight (Thursday) 7:45 o'clock. The theme "Christian Education".

Mr. Knapp is an educator with a deep interest in young people and has devoted most of his life to promoting Christian education.

Accompanying Mr. Knapp is a group from the college. The group will provide musical numbers. Of special interest is a trumpet trio which will be playing at the service.

Paul E. Moseman of Cedar Rapids, Ia., is expected to return home today (Thursday) for the Easter holidays. His sister, Miss Carolyn, who attends the School of Commerce in Omaha, arrived Wednesday. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Moseman.

Play Director Is Honored—

Following the junior play Friday evening at the public school, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Houser entertained in honor of Mrs. Louise J. Reimer, director of the play. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Reimer, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Solfermoser, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Baack, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smithson and Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Murman, the Misses Viola Haynes and Esther Kinnier.

Cubs Meet with One Absent—

Cub pack 4 met last Thursday in their new meeting place in the basement of the First National bank. Only one member was absent. We talked about our plans for the next den pack. We also worked on our den stools. The American Legion presented us a large American flag. Patrick Benze treated us to popcorn balls.—By troop reporter.

Not the Hat-- But the Heart!

"I can't possibly go to church," said Mrs. Jones. "I have no Easter hat."
"Don't be upset about that," said her husband. "Your blue hat is very pretty."

But Mrs. Jones felt that she would stand out like a sore thumb with her last year's hat. "Let's just stay at home," she suggested. "We can worship here!"

"I'm not so sure God would approve of that," her husband pointed out. "You see, if you did that, it would show Him that you placed your hat above your heart. And God is more interested in hearts than hats!"

Mrs. Jones had to agree. They attended church that Easter... with an old hat, but a new heart.

In your new hat or old, in fancy clothes or plain, we invite you to worship with us!

Platform of D. C. Schaffer

Candidate for Mayor, City of O'Neill

and the Schaffer Slate

Municipal Election, April 3, 1956

IF ELECTED, I WILL —

1. Abide by all decisions of the City Council; make every effort to restore harmony and cooperation within that duly elected body with the objective of better city government. COMMENT: I will not make decisions or issue executive orders without consent of the council or, at least, the majority thereof.

2. Eliminate extravagance in our city administration; balance the budget as quickly as possible; regard at all times the spending of taxpayers' money as a sacred trust. COMMENT: Unless a conservative attitude in the handling of city money is adopted immediately, Registered Warrants may have to be issued to pay bills during this current year. I will insist upon a dollar's worth of value for every dollar expended; spending will be confined to the essentials and there will be no frills because the tax burden has gotten out of hand.

3. Assure sound and honest government for all citizens and all classes. COMMENT: Time-honored democratic processes will prevail to insure the people of our city good, clean government. I heartily endorse the Youth Center and any other movements to provide wholesome activities and to make our city a better place in which to live.

4. Insist upon reasonable, firm and impartial law enforcement by the police department. COMMENT: The police will have their job to do and I will expect them to perform their duties in a creditable manner. There will be no dictation of policy or interference. The "turnover" of personnel in the police department during the past year suggests something has been wrong with the hiring, firing or delegation of responsibilities.

5. Pledge every effort to keep Federal Highways No. 20 and 281 on their present routes through the City. COMMENT: One year ago the Street-Widening problem was the dominant issue at election time. Street-Widening has been authorized and the job has been completed. The will of the majority shall prevail. I further pledge a program to provide parking for farm cars and farm trucks close to the business districts, and I will work untiringly for better farm-to-market roads leading to O'Neill. I promise firm traffic control to protect the lives of our children, motorists and pedestrians. Good features of traffic reforms which have taken place will be encouraged and continued.

6. Encourage all worthy and reasonable projects beneficial to our city — undertakings which our taxpayers can afford. COMMENT: I have traveled extensively and worked diligently for the betterment of the livestock industry (the backbone of North-Central Nebraska). I will devote energy and enthusiasm to the task of bringing new industry to O'Neill.

7. Oppose issuance of any additional hard liquor or beer licenses within the city. COMMENT: There are enough taverns and liquor stores here at present.

8. Always will be approachable on problems relative to good government. COMMENT: Ours is a city of 3,300 people. Our problems and economic conditions vary. But in the matter of sound, honest, good, clean government, we can all agree.

I RESPECTFULLY URGE THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF O'NEILL TO VOTE FOR:

Schaffer — Berigan — Reynoldson — Earley — Uhl

IN THE GENERAL ELECTION ON APRIL 3, 1956, AND I ASSURE YOU FULL EMPHASIS WILL BE PLACED UPON ECONOMY AND GOOD COMMON-SENSE IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE AFFAIRS OF YOUR CITY.

— D. C. SCHAFFER
