Genevieve Kamphaus, William K. Shaw Wed at Amelia

AMELIA—St. Joseph's Catholic church at Amelia was the scene of the 9 a.m. wedding of Miss Genevieve Kamphaus, daughter of Mrs. Juliana Kamphaus of Amelia, and William K. Shaw, son of Mrs. Dorothea Shaw of O'Neill, on Saturday, April 7. Rev. Francis Price solemnized the double-ring ceremony.

The bride appeared in a floor-length white gown featuring a bouffant hoop skirt of pleated nylon and lace. The bodice was styled with a Peter Pan collar, tiny buttons down the back to below the waist, and sleeves that came to a point at the wrists. She carried a white handkerchief, gift from the bridegroom's mother; a white prayer book from her sister, and a white carnation bouquet.

Her jewelry was a double-strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Kamphaus, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a rose strapless floor-length gown of nylon. The skirt was ruffled. She carried a pink carnation corsage and wore a double-strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift from the bride.

Robert Shaw of O'Neill, brother of the bridegroom, served as bestman.

The bridegroom and his attendant wore dark business suits.

Donnie Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peters and nephew of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer. Michael Kamphaus, brother of the bride, was altar boy.

The wedding party was served breakfast at the M&M cafe.

A dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother. A reception was held from 2 until 4 p.m. The couple received many gifts.

Lizzie Dexter Stasia Clemens, Esther Burgett, Margaret Carr, Marie Blair and Leone Thompson prepared the dinner. Neighbor girls helped serve at the dinner and at the reception. Mrs. Leonard Svatos had charge of the guest book and gifts. Mrs. Duane Summers cut the three-tier wedding cake.

The bride and bridegroom gave a dance in the evening at the Summerland ballroom for their many friends and relatives. They will make their home on a ranch south of O'Neill.

Joylene Kaczor an April Bride

EWING—Miss Joylene Kaczor, daughter of Joe Kaczor, became the bride of James Koenig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Koenig, on Saturday, April 7, at a nuptial mass at 9 a.m., at St. Peter's Catholic church in Ewing. Rev. Burke officiated at the single-ring ceremony. Mrs. Kermit Jefferies accompanied the choir.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin—featuring a fitted bodice and Peter Pan collar and full-length sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. A bouffant skirt featured a front lace panel and was edged in pleated tulle. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a jeweled cap. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses with white satin streamers. She carried a prayer book and rosary, gifts from the bridegroom.

Irene Kaczor, aunt of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue floor-length gown and matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridegroom wore a dark business suit. Bob Koenig, brother of the bridegroom was bestman and also wore a dark suit. Stanley Sojka, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and John Kaczor, uncle of the bride, ushered. All wore white carnation boutonnieres as did the father of the bride and the bridegroom.

Mrs. Eva Kaczor, grandmother of the bride, wore navy and pink with a pink carnation corsage. Dinner was served to 35 relatives at the Town House. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake decorated in pink and white, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Stanley Sojka, sister of the bridegroom, assisted at the gift table.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home on a farm southwest of Ewing.
