McCARVILLE'S CLOTHING: SHOES For the Entire Family

Weekly Market Report

of

The Atkinson Livestock Market

Atkinson, Nebraska

Tuesday, April 6th Auction

Well, folks, this week we only advertised 500 head, but when the last critter went over the scale we had sold about 882 head of cattle and 3 head of hogs. The sale today was a very active, high spirited one, but most all classes ruled 25 to 50 cents cwt. lower.

Good to choice steer calves were selling from $21.00 to $22.50 cwt., the latter price the day's top on some 410-lb. kinds. Several packages of light weight offerings sold above the $22.00 price. Pretty good kinds, some with horns, around $18.75 to $20.50.

In the heifer offerings 20 head of 385-lb. white faces brought $17.50, there were, however, a few packages heavier than this price but most of the choice kinds sold from $17.00 to $18.00. Good kinds $16.00 to $17.00. A package of warmed up heifers went to summer feed at $17.70 cwt.

Those cattle in the yearling class were in good demand, several short heads up against the $20.00 mark. 19 head of 650-lb. steers brought $19.30. A similar package of 570-lb. kinds brought $19.65. Plainer kinds were bringing $17.75 to $18.50 cwt.

Breeding cows showed the only advance of the day—some extra good first calf heifers brought $140.00 per head. In the butcher cattle trade canners and cutters sold from $8.75 to $10.00—beef cows from $10.00 to $12.80. Bologna bulls topped at $13.40 and bulked from $12.00 to $13.00 cwt.

Next Auction April 13th. If you have cattle to sell consign them to Nebraska's best advertised auction.
