Lela Corcoran Weds Hiram Conley

CHAMBERS — Pink carnations and white gladiolas decorated the altar of the Methodist church at Chambers Sunday for the wedding of Lela Grimes Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Grimes of Chambers, and Hiram E. Conley, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Conley of Blackduck, Minn.

Rev. L. R. Hansberry officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 3 o'clock. Stanley Lambert sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Miss Kathryn Newhouse of Neligh, who played a prelude of piano selections and the wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bluish pink lace and tulle gown styled with a peter pan collar. The fitted bodice of lace and the long tapered sleeves were buttoned with self-covered buttons. The waist-length skirt was pleated rylon tulle over satin. She wore a matching lace cap trimmed with two rows of seed pearls and carried a lavender orchid on a white Bible. She also wore pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Lorin Coppoc of Ottumwa, Ia., sister of the bride. She was attired in a waltz-length gown of white lace and net over blue taffeta with a matching head band, and carried an ivory fan with two lavender baby orchids. The fan had belonged her aunt, Miss Jennie Adams, a missionary nurse, and is now a possession of the bride.

Carol Coppoc of Ottumwa was flower girl. She was dressed in a waltz-length gown of blue net over white taffeta and carried a basket of pink carnations.

Milton Grimes of Omaha, brother of the bride, was best man. Dr. Lorin E. Coppoc of Ottumwa was the usher. The men all wore navy blue suits.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The four-tier cake was cut by Mrs. Arthur Walters. Mrs. Milton Grimes poured. Serving the bridal table were the Misses Dorine Gleed and Mary Ellen Gillette. Helping with the serving were Mrs. T. E. Newhouse, Mrs. Charles Grimes, Mrs. W. H. Woods, Mrs. G. H.

Grimes and Mrs. Lloyd Gleed. Mrs. Milton Grimes of Omaha had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Harlan Dierking of Amelia the gift table.

The bride graduated from the Chambers high school, Boyles business college in Omaha and attended Morringside college, Sioux City. She has been employed by the Chambers State bank and Julius D. Cronin of O'Neill. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Bemidji, Minn., State college and University of Minnesota school of mortuary science. The couple left for an extended trip to Colorado, Arizona and California.

Out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Coppoc of Ottumwa, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Milton Grimes of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ellis of St. Edward, Mo., and Mrs. Leo T. Adams of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner and sons of Grand Island and Mr. and Mrs. Don Prill and Maureen of Page.
