Patrolman Dies in Pistol Duel

Lloyd and Leon Grandsinger, brothers and natives of Wewela, S.D., have been charged with first-degree murder and have pleaded innocent at arraignment before Cherry County Judge C. H. Elliott at Valentine. Lloyd, 22, was hunted down by a huge posse after the fatal shooting early Friday of State Highway Patrolman Marvin Hansen. Grandsinger, in a sworn statement, said he fired a shot at Hansen with a .22-calibre pistol after Hansen and County Sheriff Bill Freeman had stopped the brothers with a road block while searching for a stolen car. The Grandsinger vehicle was towing another car at the time.

Leon surrendered but Lloyd died. In an exchange of shots with Hansen, the patrolman was hit in the stomach and died. Lloyd is being held at Valentine; Leon at Rushville. A search is on for the pistol, which is believed to be in the Niobrara river.

Lloyd was arrested after a 16-hour search. He fled after the shooting and was hunted by a large posse. Funeral services were held Monday at Valentine for Hansen.
