Before an altar banked with baskets of pink and white gladiola and ferns, a double-ring nuptial ceremony was performed at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill at 1 p.m., on Saturday, May 22. The rite united in marriage Miss Kathryn Ann Golden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Jerome Golden of O'Neill, and Capt. James Thaddeus Butcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Herring of Austin, Tex. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, pastor of St. Patrick's church, officiated in the afternoon ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of ivory embroidered silk tissue faille. Over the bodice she wore a matching fitted jacket fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and long tapering sleeves. Her elbow-length illusion veil was held in place by a half-hat of imported lace. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley centered with an orchid.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Mary Faulhaber, and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Nyla Jaszowski, wore identical waltz-length gowns of pink tissue shantung. Their Juliet caps were of pink tulle and they carried bouquets of white daisies.

The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in navy blue suits. Capt. Thomas Johnson of Sewart air force base, Tennessee, was groomsmen and the ushers were Lt. B. C. Gaus, Lt. Ellis Van Haven and Lt. Joseph Messina, all of Sewart base.

Sister M. Flores was organist and Miss Marde Birmingham was soloist. She sang "Ave Maria" and "Just For Today."

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held from 2 until 4 o'clock at the Town House. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Marvin Miller, Mrs. R. L. Owens, Miss Kathryn Judge, Mrs. I. J. Kinsman and Miss Lorraine Simonson.

For traveling the bride chose a two-piece aqua faille dress with white accessories. After a wedding trip to Texas and Old Mexico, the couple will be at home at Sewart air force base in late June.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and until recently was employed by the O-

Neill National bank. Captain Butcher is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin and is now serving with the air force.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Kinsman of Columbus, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Owens of Kansas City, Mo., Miss John Robinson and John Lee Robinson of Hampton, Ia., Miss Kathryn Judge of Kansas City, Kans., Mrs. Walter Mehner of Dallas, S.D., Mr. and Mrs. J. G.
