

Marjorie Chaney,
Neal Hamilton
Wed at Stuart

STUART—Miss Marjorie A. Chaney, daughter of Mrs. Earl Chaney and the late Mr. Chaney of Stuart, and Neal E. Hamilton of Stuart were united in marriage at an 8 o'clock nuptial ceremony in St. Boniface Catholic church Saturday, May 22. Rev. A. J. Paschang, pastor of St. Boniface church, officiated at the double-ring rite.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Robert E. Chaney of Spencer, wore a gown of rose point lace and pleated tulle over white satin. The bodice was fashioned with an Elizabethan collar and her finger-tip illusion veil was held in place by a pearl and rhinestone tiara. She carried an orchid with Stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Miss Marcia Bigelow of Omaha was maid-of-honor. She wore a lavender nylon net and lace gown styled like that of the bride. The bridesmaid, Miss Marge Weichman of Stuart, wore a similar gown of yellow. They carried colonial bouquets of roses to contrast with their dresses. The flowergirl, Miss Patricia A. Karo, was gowned in mile green and the ringbearer, Michael Chaney, wore a white suit.

The bridegroom's attendants were Cpl. James Chaney of Camp Chaffee, Ark., and Raymond Estes of Stuart. Ushers were Elvon Hamilton of Stuart and Donald Chaney of Stuart. Radeen Kramer was vocal soloist, accompanied by Sister M. Vera, organist.

A 12 o'clock breakfast was held at the Town House in O'Neill following the ceremony, and a reception was held in the home of the bride's mother from 2:30 until 4:30 o'clock. Miss Shirley Shald of Omaha had charge of the guest book. A dance was held at the auditorium in the evening.

For traveling the bride wore a brown and white printed dress with a brown bolero trimmed in white and white accessories. After a wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will be at home on a ranch southwest of Stuart. Mrs. Hamilton attended St. Boniface Catholic school and Stuart high school. Until recently she was employed by the Mutual Insurance of Omaha. Mr. Hamilton graduated from Atkinson high school and is presently associated with his brother in ranching.

Time Editor Will Speak to Stockmen

Reservations are now being accepted by the Chadron Chamber of Commerce for the 65th annual convention of the Nebraska Stock Growers association to be held in that city on June 10, 11 and 12. Willis B. Furman, Jr., of Marsland, chairman of the stockmen's convention committee, advises those planning to attend to submit their requests for lodging to F. W. Barnes, Chadron Chamber of Commerce housing committee, Chadron.

Throughout the three-day meeting, both the Nebraska Cow-Belles and Junior Stock Growers will conduct business and social sessions.

A most promising program of speaking talent across the country has been assembled for the occasion. Appearing from the staff of Time magazine will be James C. Keogh, associate editor, in a discussion of national affairs entitled, "Time to Take Stock." From his 41 years in the meat-packing industry, Paul C. Smith, vice-president and a director of Swift and Company, will address the stockmen on the topic, "The Long View."

Pageant Planned in Atkinson Park

WESLEYAN METHODIST (O'Neill)

Rev. Melvin Groenbach, pastor Friday, May 28: In the public school auditorium, the Billy Graham evangelistic association will present the first Christian western known as "Mr. Texas," 8 p.m. This film will be in full color, featuring Redd Harper and Cindy Winkler, both professional western stars, who have recently made their decision to give their lives and talents to Christian service. The film was first shown October 1, 1951, in Hollywood Bowl to a record throng of 25,000 persons who jammed into the huge amphitheater for the largest attendance any motion picture has ever had in this country. In the past year an estimated 3,000,000 persons have seen the film. From this number of viewers, some 85,000 have made decisions to accept the Christian way of life.

The story revolves around the Billy Graham crusade in Will Rogers coliseum in Ft. Worth, Tex. After seeing this film you will also want to see "Oil Town, USA", featuring the same people, only the location is Houston, Tex., filmed early in the summer of 1952.

Thursday, June 3: "Oil Town, USA" will be shown in the public school auditorium, 8 p.m. Free will offering will be taken. Sunday, May 30: Sunday-school at 10 a.m.; worship at 11 a.m.; daily vacation Bible school program at 8 p.m.
