Miss Leona Troshynski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Troshynski of O'Neill and Francis L. Hershiser and the late Mr. Hershiser of O'Neill, were united in marriage Tuesday, May 25. The rite was performed before an altar banked in gladiola and fern following a 9 o'clock nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. Rev. Kenneth Carl officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a dress of imported lace and a full gathered nylon and lace net overskirt over satin. The fitted long tapering sleeves. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearl and she carried an arm bouquet of red roses and white stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miriam Troshynski, and bridesmaid, Betty Troshynski, both sisters of the bride, wore identical gowns of lavender and yellow lace and net over satin. They carried colonial bouquets of white daisies.

The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in blue business suits and wore white carnation boutonnières.

Floyd Hershiser was best man for his brother and Bennett Herford, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, was his attendant. Ushers were Lionel Babl and Elwin Babl, both cousins of the bride.

Miss Gayle Murphy, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl and Jimmy Troshynski, the bride's brother, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Marie McDonald was the vocal soloist.

Immediately after the ceremony, a breakfast for the wedding party and immediate families was held at the M&M. A reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Raymond Bosen was in charge of the decorations at the reception and the bridal table Corrine Murphy and Elaine Hayes served. Mrs. Robert Lowery and Betty Thomas poured. Mrs. Bennett Herford served the wedding cake, Miss Doris Bogue was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Floyd Hershiser and Miss Marjorie Troshynski were in charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Hershiser was graduated from St. Mary's academy and since that time has been employed at teaching. Mr. Hershiser graduated from O'Neill high school and is employed by the Lew White Motor company.

For traveling the bride wore a light blue suit with pink accessories. After a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will reside in O'Neill.

Korea Vets Must Apply by August 20

Korean veterans must begin educational training under the GI bill by August 20, or two years after discharge whichever is later, according to John Grutsch of O'Neill, Holt county service officer.

Application for training is not enough, you must actually be in training or school, Grutsch said. Veterans of World War II and Korea have until June 30 to apply for dental treatment.

"You have only 30 days left—so hurry," he added.

Apply to your county veterans service officer or Nebraska department of veterans affairs, statehouse, Lincoln.
