Ewing Navy Enlistees Get Separation

EWING—Pat Sanders, CS 2, and David Cloyd, CS 3, both of Ewing, who enlisted in the navy July 20, 1950, received their discharges last week and headed homeward from the West coast. They arrived in Ewing a few hours apart to meet for the first time since boot training. After boot training at San Diego, Calif., David was given a leave which he spent at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Cloyd. Upon his return to duty, he was assigned to sea duty in Japan and Korea, where he spent about nine months. For some time he was stationed at Long Beach where he received his discharge. Pat was assigned to sea duty following completion of boot training, going to the USS Philippine, an aircraft carrier. Most of his time was spent in the Far East. On May 21, 1951, Pat was home on his first—and only—leave during his four years.

Both boys were married while in service. Miss Barbara Halliday became Pat's bride on December 12, 1953, at Oakland, Calif. David married Blanche Swan of Arizona February 21, 1953. They have a daughter, Janet Elaine. After a visit with home folks all will return to California to make their homes.

One of Nebraska's Richest Marketing Areas

the O'NEILL region

served by North Nebraska's fastest-growing newspaper*

O'Neill is North-Central Nebraska's largest city (pop. 3,050). It is situated at the gateway to the sandhills and is the biggest retail, wholesale, communications, hay, bluegrass and farm produce center in all North Nebraska; also one of the ranking cattle and hog markets in the state.

The FRONTIER's circulation has been growing by leaps and bounds, because of its well-edited news and editorial policies and because, in a single year, it has published more pictures than many other papers in the area combined!

Your message in The FRONTIER will enter ranch, farm and city homes where folks enjoy far-above-average purchasing power . . . where your story is welcomed and wanted.
