Laura Mulford Is June Bride

STUART — Cleveland Presbyterian church was the scene of a 2 p.m. wedding of Miss Laura Mulford and Lawrence D. Woodcock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mulford of Stuart and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marie Woodcock of North Platte. The Rev. D. D. Su officiated in the presence of one hundred guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with a fitted embroidered nylon bodice and a full gathered skirt of organdy over satin. Her fingertip veil was nylon net held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

She also followed the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue, with a penny in her shoe.

A cousin, Miss Onie McClurg of Atkinson, attended the bride as maid-of-honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Joan Appleby of Ft. Morgan, Colo., and Miss Marilyn Rightmire of Bertrand.

Donald Hobbs of Denver, Colo., served as best man.

The Mason brothers, cousins of the bridegroom, were the ushers. The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore navy blue gowns with pink carnation corsages.

Placed at either end of the altar was basket of pink and white Esther reed daisies.

Fred Mulford, brother of the bride, sang the songs, "I Love Thee" and "A Wedding Prayer". Miss Marilyn Stewart of Anselmi played the piano.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

Mrs. Woodcock is a graduate of Hastings college, and was a member of the Chi Omega Psi.

Mr. Woodcock, also a graduate of Hastings college, is now attending McCormick Theological seminary in Chicago, Ill.

After a short wedding trip through Western Nebraska the couple will be at home for the in Dighton.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tomjack visited her mother, Mrs. A. E. Ponton, and other relatives in Elgin.

Mrs. Margaret Waller will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Waller this next week.

Evalyn Jean Asher, Joseph F. Bangs Exchange Vows

Before an altar appointed with roses, Miss Evalyn Jean Asher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. Asher, and A. J. Joseph F. Bangs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Bangs, Jr., of Danbury, Conn., on Tuesday, June 15, were united in marriage in an afternoon ceremony at the First Methodist church in O'Neill.

Rev. J. LaVerne Jay, district superintendent of the Methodist church, performed the 4 o'clock double-ring ceremony.

The date chosen by the bride has special significance inasmuch as it was the wedding anniversary of her father and mother.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of French lace over nylon tulle and taffeta. The fitted bodice with long tapering sleeves was accented with a portrait neckline finished with a standing lace collar. The bouffant redingote styled skirt was highlighted with a pleated nylon panel set, in the full length of the front. Her fingertip veil of French illusion net was held in place by a pearl and rhinestone half hat. She wore a pearl necklace and pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a white carnation bouquet.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Marge Norman of O'Neill, appeared in a blue taffeta and lace floor-length gown with a lace bolero. She wore a half hat of daisies and carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies.

Don W. Asher of Valentine, brother of the bride, was best man and LeRoy Asher and Charles Asher, both of Valentine and cousins of the bride, were ushers. The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in dark business suits, with white carnation boutonnieres.

Miss Donna Asher, sister of the bride, was candlelighter.

The mother of the bride wore a gray dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of dove gray with white and navy accessories. Their corsages were pink and white carnations.

Duane Booth, soloist, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Miss Verle Kalya, organist.

A dinner for the wedding party, family and close friends at the Town House followed the ceremony. Miss Caroline Hiatt was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore an aqua faille two-piece dress with white accessories. After a wedding trip through the Eastern states, the couple will be at home in Boston, Mass., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Cambridge Air Force Research center.

Mrs. Bangs is a 1954 graduate from the O'Neill high school. Airman Bangs graduated from high school at Cornell, N. Y., and before entering the air force attended New York State university at White Plains, N. Y.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding and dinner were Mrs. Joseph F. Bangs, Sr., of Danbury, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Asher and family of Overland Park, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Asher and Susan of Valentine; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Asher and sons of Valentine; Miss Roberta Roesa of Valentine, and Miss June Klink of Valentine.
