Mrs. Merle Edwin Davis, nee Carol Seger . . . wed in Methodist church.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Carol Seger, Edwin Davis Wed Sunday

Before an altar decorated with red roses and mock orange blossoms, Miss Glenda Carol Seger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seger of O'Neill, and Merle Edwin Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Davis of O'Neill, were united in marriage on Sunday, June 27, at the Methodist church in O'Neill. Rev. Wallace B. Smith, church pastor, officiated at the double-ring rite.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and nylon net over taffeta. Over the strapless bodice she wore a fitted lace jacket with a mandarin collar and long, fitted wrist length tapering sleeves.

An apron of lace fell over the bouffant skirt. Her floor-length veil was held in place by a bandeau of satin and white roses. She carried a bouquet of white roses tied with satin streamers and for jewelry wore a diamond necklace which had been a gift to her grandmother on her own wedding day and earrings which had been in her family since the Eighteenth century.

Miss Phyllis Seger, maid-of-honor for her sister, wore a lavender ballerina-length gown of nylon net over taffeta with a matching net stole over the strapless bodice. The bridesmaids, Miss Janice Landreth of Page and Miss Charlotte McVay, wore ballerina length gowns with net stoles, in green and pink respectively. They were styled like that of the maid-of-honor. The three attendants each carried colonial bouquets of daisies tied with ribbons the color of their dresses.

Lyle Davis was bestman for his brother. Ushers were Owen Davis and Gene Seger, brothers of the bridegroom and bride respectively.

Duane Booth, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Miss Connie Kurtz, organist.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Etta Murray was in charge of the guest book; Mrs. C. E. McVay the gifts and the Misses Janet Seger and Bonnie Keeney of Norfolk poured.

For traveling the bride wore a red nylon dress with white accessories.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in O'Neill. Mrs. Davis is a 1954 graduate of the O'Neill high school and Mr. Davis graduated from O'Neill high school in 1953. He is employed by Consumers Public Power district in O'Neill.

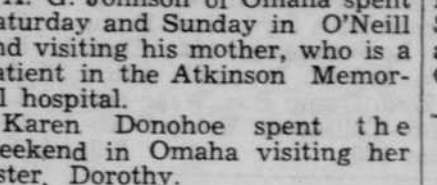

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Birmingham entertained at dinner Saturday in honor of Lt. and Mrs. Robert Berrigan of St. Louis, Mo., and Edward T. Campbell, jr., of Greenbay, Wis.

Mrs. John Carroll, Michael and Bill returned to their home in Lincoln Wednesday. They had been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. William J. Biglin.

Entertains at Luncheon—

Mrs. Edward M. Campbell entertained Wednesday, June 23, at a luncheon honoring Mrs. George Stannard of San Diego, Calif.
