Needlers Enjoy Sack Lunch
 PAGE — Nine members and three leaders of the Nifty Needlers 4-H club of Page were present June 29 at demonstration day in O'Neill at the courthouse annex. The girls gave three demonstrations: Coconut bars by Donna Crumly, setting the table by Dixie Nissen, making snickerdoodle by Kay Nissen and Connie Riege.

Miss Harriet Adams from the agricultural college at Lincoln discussed the demonstrations and gave pointers. The girls enjoyed a sack lunch in Ford park.
 On June 30 the Nifty Needlers met with Vivian Ragland, with Marjorie Egan assisting. The girls and their mothers served a picnic lunch across the road in the Merwyn French, sr., yard.
 Nineteen girls answered roll call. Visitors were Linda Harrison of Lincoln, Jaunita and Royben Ragland, Miss Bette French and Mrs. Jesse Kelly.
 Plans were made to attend the judging day, July 8, at O'Neill. Ruth Kelly demonstrated and baked cornbread.
 The next meeting will be July 14 with Dixie and Kay Nissen. — By Connie Riege, reporter.

Lamb-Thomas Rites in Wayne Church

WAYNE—Before an altar appointed with red roses and candles, Miss Ethel Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamb of Wayne, and Pvt. James W. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas of Dixon, returned from their marriage at the Wayne Wesleyan Methodist church. Rev. W. B. Lamb of O'Neill, assisted by Rev. G. M. Hubby of Wayne, officiated at the double-ring rite.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina-length gown of tulle over taffeta featuring a fitted jacket with a lace-edged Peter Pan collar and cuffs. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and red roses.
 Miss Jeanette Lamb was maid-of-honor for her sister. She was gowned in a full-skirted taffeta with a fitted bodice and Peter Pan collar. She carried a white lace fan decorated with red roses.
 Miss Judy Lamb was the flower-girl for her sister and Sharon Prescott of Dixon was the candle-lighter. They wore dresses of pink and green nylon net respectively, carrying out the bride's colors.
 Edward Thomas of Dixon was bestman for his brother, Melvin Lamb and Arthur Jensen, both of Wayne, were the ushers.
 Ivan Meyer of Atkinson was soloist, accompanied by Miss Bonnie Hubby of Wayne, organist.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Allen Prescott of Dixon was in charge of cutting and serving the cake. She had baked it and decorated it for her niece, Mesdames Louis Prescott, Leonard Hamilton and Irene Hamilton also assisted at the reception. Miss Janet Anderson and Miss Ruth Thomas were in charge of the gift table and Miss Joyce Thomas the guest book.
 Mrs. Thomas graduated from Wayne high school in 1953. She attended the O'Neill high school in 1951-'52. Following high school she attended Miltonvale college, Miltonvale, Kans., and is now employed by the Bell Telephone company in Wayne. Private Thomas graduated from Dixon high school in 1951 and is in the armed services stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.
