The Frontier Woman . . . Prefers TFW Letters Signed

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

It is soon going to be cucumber time and folks will be starting to put up pickles again. You have probably already bought watermelons. Maybe you'd like to make some pickled watermelon rind. Here is a good recipe:

PICKLED WATERMELON RIND

Cut away green rind and pink part of watermelon. Cut white rind into one-inch cubes. Cover with hot water, then parboil until it can be pierced with a fork, but do not let it get soft. For seven pounds of rind, make the following syrup:

Seven cups sugar, one pint vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon oil of cloves, 1/2 teaspoon oil of cinnamon.

When rind has been sufficiently parboiled, drain off water, bring syrup to boiling point and pour it over rind. Let stand in kettle overnight. In the morning, drain off syrup, reheat it and pour back over rind. The third morning, heat both rind and syrup and seal in jars. Makes about eight pints. Using the oil of cinnamon and of cloves keeps the cubes clear and almost transparent. This makes a delicious sweet pickle.

You can also make a watermelon relish.

WATERMELON RELISH
Remove rind and seeds from watermelon, leaving only edible pink portion. With hands, squeeze as much water out of the pulp as possible. Drain and measure. To seven cups of pulp add four cups of sugar and 1/3 cup of cider or white vinegar. Cook 30 minutes, then add 1/2 lemon (sliced thin), 12 whole cloves and one-inch stick cinnamon. Boil slowly, stirring from time to time until a thick, deep red relish is obtained. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal. Makes two pints. This is a delicious accompaniment to fowl, veal or pork.

too many windy days. Maybe I'll get them done this week. I do enjoy reading The Frontier Woman. It's so interesting to find out who's writing and so many are people I know. I like it so much better when I find signed names.

I have a little girl, 5, in school and another little girl, 4. She gets pretty lonely for her sister when she is in school. This morning while I was doing dishes and she was wiping them for me, she looked up and said, "Mamma, I'm your baby sweetheart, aren't I?" Oh, these little ones are cute.

For all you mothers who have little girls and boys to make birthday cakes for, try putting the face of a clock on the cake with icing and have the hands pointing to the child's age.

I was reading an article which struck my heart. It said, "If you want a home in heaven, first make heaven in your home."

Will close with a dessert recipe:

FRUIT COCKTAIL CAKE
One size 2 1/2 cup drained fruit cocktail, one egg, one cup sugar, one cup flour, one teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt. Mix these ingredients together and place the following topping on before baking — 1/2 cup brown sugar, one teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 cup nutmeats or chocolate chips. Bake 35 to 40 minutes in 350 F. oven. Top with whipped cream.

Modern Adequate Wiring for Better Living— TODAY and TOMORROW!

Whether You Build or Remodel— IT IS TRUE ECONOMY TO MAKE SURE THAT YOUR HOME IS COMPLETELY EQUIPPED TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE PLEASURE, COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE OF MODERN ELECTRICAL LIVING.

A home wiring system that is inadequate to take care of existing, or contemplated, electrical requirements results in loss of TIME, CONVENIENCE, APPLIANCE OPERATING EFFICIENCY and MODERN LIVING-COMFORT! A poor wiring system may rob you of up to 34% of the electricity you buy after it flows through the electric meter—electricity that you pay for but never get to use!

It Costs So Little— It Means So Much!

Actually the difference of an Adequate Wiring system over a Minimum Requirement system, for a 7 to 8 room home under construction, may cost as little as .90c per month distributed over a 20-year mortgage. An Adequate Wiring system in your home can well add several hundred dollars to its resale value. At the very least, it means greater COMFORT, CONVENIENCE, ECONOMY and EFFICIENCY for you and your family! Whether you plan to build or remodel, it will pay you to consult your home builder and electrical contractor! Ask them about the advantages of Modern Adequate Wiring for Better Living in your home!

Ask us for your FREE BOOKLET entitled, "Easier Living Within Your Power—Electrically." This very informative booklet is an easy-to-follow guide to Better Living With Modern Adequate Wiring.
