Zellars - Rapp Nuptials at Page

PAGE—A bank of pink roses and regal lilies formed the setting for the Saturday wedding of Dorothy Zellars, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zellars, of Page, and Merlyn Rapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rapp, of Denton, at the home of the bride's parents. It was a 3 p.m., ceremony with Rev. L. E. Mewmaw reading the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of French imported lace over white taffeta, featuring a low-cut neckline with a full skirt falling to ballerina length. A lace hairdo, the bride's finger veil, Her corsage was an orchid with lily of the valley streamers. She carried an embroidered silk handkerchief that had been her great-grandmother's.

Miss Jean Marie Clark of Lincoln was maid-of-honor. She was dressed in a mist green batiste gown of ballerina length and wore a corsage of dark pink carnations. The bridegroom was attended by Merford Chase of Lincoln. They wore blue business suits and white carnation boutonnières. Elona Ruth King carried a white Bible and Nelta Lois King was ringbearer. Both are nieces of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a 5 o'clock dinner was served to the 18 guests present. The table was centered by a three-tier wedding cake topped by the traditional bride and bridegroom ornament. Proposing the bride chose in a light pink dress with white accessories. After a wedding trip to the Black Hills, the young couple will be at home in Denton.
