Good Spices Are Essential

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

When you get ready to make pickles, go over your recipes and see what spices will be needed and buy them up ahead.

Whole spices are usually better in preference to ground but the recipe usually will tell you which to use.

A good standard cider vinegar of a little better than standard strength, is best for making pickles.

Remember that long boiling of a little better than standard strength, is best for making pickles.

spoil the flavor of vinegar and develops a bitter flavor in spices cooked with it.
