Rites at Bassett

(See photo at right)
ATKINSON—St. Mary's Episcopal church at Bassett was the scene of the Tuesday, June 29, wedding of Miss Myra Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Mitchell of Bassett, and Richard Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shaw of Atkinson.

Rev. E. A. St. John officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Miss Janelle Potratz was maid-of-honor and Jake Maurer was bestman.

The bride, given in marriage by Don West, wore a white pique dress trimmed with lace. She chose white accessories and carried white carnations on a white prayer book.

A blue cotton dress with white accessories was worn by the maid-of-honor. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Stephen Strand was acolyte and Miss Doralee Henderson played the nuptial music.

Following a wedding trip to South Dakota the couple will reside on a ranch south of Atkinson.

Arrive from California—

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Davidson and family of Culver City, Calif., arrived Monday and will visit for two weeks with his mother, Mrs. James Davidson, sr., and other relatives and friends in O'Neill. Mrs. Davidson is the former Ila Anderson of Atkinson. She is a half-sister of Darrel Slaymaker of O'Neill.

Stuart Downs Atkinson Baseballers, 5-3—

ATKINSON—The Atkinson town team was out for revenge Sunday night when it punched home 10 markers and held the Stuart squad scoreless. The Stuart club had dealt Atkinson its only league loss.

Ainsworth also dropped the Atkinson team in loop competition but the game was protested because the winners used players not on their roster. Atkinson won the protest.

Roland Everett, who pitched Junior Legion ball last summer, held the Stuart team to two hits in seven innings. Jim Ellenwood twirled the last two innings and did not allow a hit.

The Atkinson batsmen were paced by Sonny Retzlaff, Pat Miller and Jack Forristal, who socked a pair of bingles a piece.

Everett added another win to his victory string. His season, total now is seven victories and no defeats. He has hurled 57 innings allowing only 34 hits. He has fanned 50 hitters.

Senate to Reconsider Power Line to Belden

Gov. Robert Crosby reported Tuesday that the senate appropriations committee has agreed to reconsider the requested $450,000 appropriation for construction of a transmission line from Gavins Point dam to Belden.

The governor said the word was relayed by Nebraska's senators, Eve Bowring and Sam Reynolds.

"This is our last hope in the present session of congress," Crosby said, "and it is particularly gratifying in view of the unrelenting opposition which blocked a final report for favorable consideration in the House of Representatives."

The governor was told that key members of the state committee have been promised to try to include the Belden line funds in the final supplemental appropriation bill which will be before the senate committee in the next few days.

Belden, situated about 70 miles east of O'Neill, is the first strategic point east of O'Neill in the Nebraska public power grid.

O'Neill Rockets Top Bassett, 5-4

Opponents' Errors Help Win

BASSETT—O'Neill Rockets handed the Bassett town team a 5-4 defeat Sunday on the Bassett diamond.

The home team socked eight hits to five for the winners but errors and men left on base spelled the difference.

Batteries: O'Neill—Beringer and Milo; Bassett—L. Fischer and Clark.

Bassett now has a pair of wins and a half-dozen defeats. Orchard will play at Bassett today (Thursday).

Darel Graham started on the mound for O'Neill and was relieved by Beringer, who got credit for the win. Graham struck out one, yielded seven hits, walked three. Beringer collected two strikeouts, gave up one hit, and issued three walks.

Fisher whiffed 10, gave up 10 hits, walked two. O'Neill's two tallies in the ninth came after two were out. Nesbitt doubled, Beringer reached first on an error, and Gorgen came through with a single.

Ainsworth 5: O'Neill 4

The O'Neill Rockets and Ainsworth turned in a nip-and-tuck performance here last Thursday night with Ainsworth winning the North-Central Nebraska Day-and-Night league battle, 5-4.

Rowan was the starting pitcher for Ainsworth and was relieved by Bruce Johnson in the fourth. Don Larsen finally was called in to relieve Johnson in the ninth. Johnson, however, got credit for the win.

The Ainsworth chugging department got credit for seven strikeouts and gave up only two walks.

Gorgen began on the mound for O'Neill, being relieved by Beringer in the fifth, who was charged with the loss. Gorgen collected three kayos and issued two base tickets. Beringer whiffed four, walked three.

The Rockets limped off the field as the game ended with three dying on base.
